FIRST LAW OF MISSISSIPPI TERRITORY ENACTED FEB. 28, 1799.

MISSISSIPPI DEPARTMENT OF ARCHIVES AND HISTORY

2d Vol. Ref. No. 1.

A Law in aid of, and in addition to the regulation of the Governor, for the permanent establishment of the Militia of The Mississippi Territory.

All free male inhabitants between the age of sixteen and fifty, the offic of civil government appointed by the president and senate of the united states, o commissioned by the Governor; ministers of religious societies, that are or may be established, and regularly educated practicing physicians, only excepted, shal be liable to, and perform military duty, and be divided agreeably to the order of the commander in chief, into corps of horse and foot, and formed in the following manner.

Sixty four rank and file shall form a company of Infantry, or rifle men or a Troop of horse.

To each company of infantry or rifle men, there shall be appointed a Captain, lieutenant, and ensign, four sergeants, four corporals, a drummer and fifer

To a troop of horse, one captain, one lieutenant, and one cornet, four ser =geants, four corporals and one trumpeter.

The whole militia of the Territory shall, until the commander in chief may otherwise direct, be formed into two legions, and bear the names of the counti to which they shall respectively appertain, so soon as such shall be erected and laid off

A Lieutenant-Colonel shall command each legion, and there may be appoin such other field officers, as the commander in chief may deem necessary.

There shall also be appointed to each legion, an adjutant and a quarter and whenever the commander in chief shall believe it essential to the well ordering o the militia of this Territory, he may appoint an adjutant general, with the rank of a major, or lieutenant colonel.

Each and every horseman shall furnish himself with a sword, one pistol twelve rounds of cartridges, three flints, a priming wire, small portmanteau, and such other arms and accoutrements, as the commander in chief may direct.

Every militia man who is enrolled for service on foot, shall furnish himse with a musquet and bayonet, cartridge box, and thirty rounds of cartridges, or rifle and tomahawk, powder horn and bullet pouch, with one pound of powder an four pounds of bullets, six flints, priming wires, brushes and knapsacks.

And every person enrolled in this militia, who shall be found deficient upon any muster day, in the arms, ammunition and accoutrements, or any of them, here ordered to be furnished; shall after a reasonable time given, in the judgment of the legionary commandants (not exceeding six months) to enable him to procure th same, at each and every time of default, be fined in the sum of three dollars.

The officers shall be armed and accoutred as the privates, with the addi tion of swords only for the infantry.

Upon the second saturday of each and every month, officers commanding companies, are to assemble and parade their men, at such time and place, as they may deem best adapted for their general convenience; and there diligently exerci them for the space of two hours, in marching, wheeling, firing with good aim, and use of the bayonet for the infantry.

There shall be four field days in each and every year, to be named by the commander in chief, or the commandants of legions under his order, upon which the respective commands, that can, in his judgement, with any convenience be assembled, must be exercised as legionary corps.

If any person enrolled in the militia, shall refuse or neglect to appear, upon the regular stated muster or field days, after being informed by a commissioned or non commissioned officer, of the time and place of parade; or shall refuse to do his duty when appearing, he shall be fined in the sum of three dollars for each default, except in case of absence, and when he shall render a sufficient excuse to his Captain.

If any commissioned, non commissioned officer or private, shall cause or promot any disorder, upon the regular stated muster or field days, so as to impede or prevent the military exercises, which may be ordered; he shall be tried by a court martial, and upon conviction thereof, shall be fined in a sum not exceeding ten dollars.

All fines are to be collected by a warrant of distress, from the captain or sen -ior officer of a company, directed to any one of the sergeants, who is to levy upon the goods or chattels of the defaulter, and after advertising the same for five days, if the fine is not then paid, he shall proceed to sell at public vendue, to the highest bidder so much of the effects, as will answer the fine, and one dollar for his own use returni the overplus if any there be, to the party who owned the property so destrained, and the fine levied, shall by the officer from whom the warrant issued, be paid into the county treasury, for the use of the legions; and to be appropriated, in such way or manner, as the field officers, or a majority of them shall direct, with the approbation of the commander in chief.

Upon any invasion of this Territory, or the appearance thereof, or domestic disturbances, actually existing or apprehended; the commander in chief, or commandants of counties, in pressing emergencies, where the commander in chief cannot seasonably be resorted to; are authorised to make such detachments for guard patrols, and other military duty, as the public exigencies may in his, or their opinion require, (provided that in all cases where detachments are ordered by commandants of legions, report thereof shall be made without delay to the commander in chief) and in case of refusal to appear and perform duty, under such authority, or disobedience or neglect of orders, in time of service, the defaulter shall be deemed guilty of cowardice, and be heard, tried and sentenced by a court martial.

All officers shall be attentive to the forming, disciplining, parading and commanding their respective corps, and to such other duties, as shall respectively bind them by this law; and by the orders from time to time to be given them, by the commander in chief; or other their superior officers.

If any officer shall be guilty of a breach of this law, or in any respect, violate or neglect his duty, he shall be heard, tried, and sentenced by a court martial

A court martial shall not consist of more than nine members, nor less than three, whereof one at least shall have rank superior to that of a lieutenant.

Courts martial may be appointed by the commander in chief, or the commandants of legions, but the commander in chief, only, shall have the power of approving and carrying into effect, sentences of courts martial, whereby the punishment shall be capital, or an officer cashiered; and the commander in chief is authorised and impowered to remit fines that may be inflicted, where it shall appear from the oaths of two credible witnesses, that the person fined, is unable to pay the same, without great distress to himself or family.

The free male inhabitants above the age of fifty, shall arm and accoutre themselves either as the cavelry, or those who serve on foot (at their own option) but they shall not be liable to military service except in cases of actual invasion, and under the immediate direction of the commander in chief.

The foregoing is hereby declared to be a law of the Mississippi Territory, this twenty-eighth day of february anno Domini one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine. In testimony of which, we have undersigned our names and caused the public seal to be thereunto affixed.

it shall be lawful for such Justice or Justices, to commit the delinquent or delin =quents to Goal, there to remain until sentence be performed, and it shall be la =ful for such Justice or Justices, whenever the crime shall be committed in his their presence, or view, to sentence as aforesaid without further examination: which fines shall be by such Justice or Justices paid to the clerk of the court of quar =ter sessions, and by him paid into the county Treasury. All warrants issued by a Justice or Justices out of sessions, either for apprehending, securing or committing to goal, persons suspected, or convicted of crimes, shall be under the hand and seal of such Justice or Justices, and directed to the officer or officers whose duty it shall be to execute criminal process, and such officer or officers shall obey the warrant or warrants issued as aforesaid.

The court of General quarter sessions, shall and may hear, determine and sen =tence according to the course of the common Law, all crimes and misdemeanours of whatever nature or kind, committed within their respective counties, the punish =ment whereof doth not extend to life, limb, imprisonment for more than one year or forfeiture of goods and chattels, or Lands and tenements to the Government of the Territory.

To the end, that persons indicted or outlawed for felonies, or other offences in county, who dwell, remove or shall be received into another county may be brought to Justice: it is hereby directed, that the Justices or any of them, shall and may direct their writs or precepts, to all or any of the Sheriffs, or other officers of the said county, where need shall be, to take such persons indicted or outlawed, and it shall and may be lawful to, and for the said Justices, and every of them, to issue forth subpoenas, and other warrants, under their respective hands and the seal of the county, into any county or place of this Territory, for summoning or bringing any person or persons, to give evidence in and upon any matter or cause whatsoever, now or hereafter examinable, or in any ways triable by or before them; under such pains and penalties as subpœnas or warrants of that kind, usually are or ought by Law, to be granted or awarded.

If any person or persons shall find him or themselves aggrieved, by the Judgement of any of the said courts of general quarter sessions of the peace, or any other courts of record within this Territory; it shall and may be Lawful, to, and for the party so aggrieved to have his or their writ or writs of errore, which shall be granted of course, in manner as other writs are to be granted, and made returnable to the supreme court.

Provided always, that the said courts of the general quarter sessions of the peace, may be kept and continued for the space of three legal days, or seventy two hours, in every of the said counties respectively at the times and shall be appointed to hold and keep the same.

The Territorial Judges shall hold the supreme Court once in every year, in each county respectively, at such places as shall be appointed for the courts of general quarter sessions of the peace, and at such times as will hereafter be declared by law. And the Judges of the said court and every of them shall have power and authority, when, and as often as there may be occasion to issue forth writs of error, certiorari, and habeas corpus, and all remedial, and other writs and process, returnable to the same, and grantable by the Judges, by virtue of office. They shall in their said court hear and determine, all causes, matters and things, cognizable in the same; and also hear and determine all, and all manner of pleas, plaints and causes, which shall be removed, or brought thereinto from the respective general quarter sessions of the peace; and courts of Common pleas, or from any other court to be holden for the respective Counties: and examine and correct, all, and all manner of errors, of the Justices of the inferior courts, in their Judgments, process and proceedings, in the said courts; as well in all pleas of the united states, as in all pleas real, personal, and mixed; and thereupon reverse, or affirm the said Judgments, as the law doth or shall direct. They shall also examine, correct and punish, the contempts, omissions, and neglects, favors, corruptions, and defaults of all, or any of the Justices of the peace, sheriffs, coroners, clerks and other officers, within the said respective counties. And shall award process for levying, as well of such fines, forfeitures and amercia-be estreated into the the supreme court, as of the fines, forfeitures and amerciam which shall be lost, taxed and set there, and not paid to the uses to which they are or shall be appropriated: and generally shall minister ample Justice, to all person and amply exercise the Jurisdictions and powers herein mentioned, concernin all and singular the premises according to law.

All writs returnable to the supreme court, shall run in the name, and styl of the United States of America, and bear test in the name of the presiding judge: but if he be plaintif or defendant, then in the name of one of the other judges; and shall be sealed with the judicial seal of the said court, and made return able to the next court after the date of such writs.

The judges of the supreme court, shall have power from time to time, to deliver the gaols, of all persons who now are, or hereafter shall be committed for Treasons, murders, and such other crimes as, by the laws of this Territory, now are, or hereafter shall be made capital, or Felonies of death, as aforesaid: and for that end, from time to time, to issue forth such necessary precepts and proces, and force obedience thereto, as Justices of assize, Justices of oyer and terminer, and Gaol Delivery, may, or can do within the united states.

In order to compel the due attendance of Jury men on the said supreme Court and all other courts within this Territory; it is hereby declared, that if any person shall be duly summoned to attend any court of Judicature, to serve on a Jury or on any inquest required by law, and shall neglect or refuse to give his attendance, on the day, and during the time his service is necessary: every such person so offend-ing, shall be fined for every such offence in the supreme court, and court of oyer and terminer, by the Judges thereof, in any sum not exceeding twelve Dollars: and for every such offence in the court of common pleas, or court of quarter sessions of the peace, for any county of the Territory, by the Justices thereof, any sum not exceeding Eight Dollars: unless such delinquent shall at the same, or next succeeding court, render to the Judges, or Justices thereof a reasonable excuse, for such neglect or refusal, to be allowed by such of them as shall be present; which said Judges or Justices are hereby empowered and required, on failure of such delinquent to render such reasonable excuse, to issue a writ to the Sheriff of the county to levy the said fine on the goods and chattels of every such delinquent to be paid into the County Treasury.

A competent number of persons shall be commissioned by the Governor, under the seal of the Territory, as Justices of the common pleas; who shall hold and keep a Court of record in every county, and which shall be styled and called the Court of common pleas, of (naming the county) and be holden four times in every year, in each County at the place where the general quarter sessions of the peace shall be respectively kept. Which said Justices or any three of them, according to the tenor and direction of their commissions, shall hold pleas of Assize, Scire facias, Replevins, and hear, and determine all, and all manner of pleas, actions, suits and causes, civil, personal, real and mixed according to law.

Every of the said Justices shall, and are hereby empowered, to grant und seal of their respective courts, replevins, writs of partition, writs of view, and all writs and process, upon the said pleas, and actions, cognizable in the said respecti courts, as occasion may require

The said Justices of the said respective courts, last mentioned, shall, and are hereb empowered to issue forth subpoenas, under their respective hands, and the seal of the court, into any county, or place within this Territory; for summoning, or bringing any person or persons, to give evidence in, or upon the trial of any matter or cause whatsoever, depending before them, or any of them; under such pains and penalti as, by the rules of the common law, and course of the practice of the Supreme Cour are usually appointed.

Upon any judgment obtained in any of the said courts of common pleas, and execution returned by the sheriff or coroner, of the proper county, where such judg=ment was obtained, that the party is not to be found, or hath no lands, or tenement goods or chattels in that county; and thereupon it is testified that the party selleth o lies hid, or hath lands, tenements, goods or chattels in another county, in this Territor it shall and may be lawful, to, and for the court that issued out such execution, to grant an alias execution, with a testatum, directed to the sheriff or the coroner of the county or place where such person lies hid, or where his lands and effects are, commanding him to execute the same, according to the tenor of such writ or writ and make return thereof to the court of common pleas, where such recovery is had, judgment is given. And if the sheriff or coroner, to whom such writ or writs shall be directed, shall refuse or neglect to execute and return the same accordingly, he shall be amerced in the county where he ought to return it, and be liable to the action of the party aggrieved: and the said amerciaments shall be taxed, set, according to the quality of the offence, and assessed by the [illegible] the respective courts of common pleas with the concurring [illegible] or court of oyer, and terminer in course, that the proper writ of error may issue, for levying such fines and amerciaments as shall be imposed, and for which they are or shall be appropriated.

All suits, actions, and causes before the supreme Court, or the courts of common pleas, and general quarter sessions of the peace, that shall remain undetermined, shall be continued over to the next respective term ensuing, under the authority of this law.

The foregoing is hereby declared to be a law of the Mississippi Territory this twenty eight day of February, anno Domini one thousand seven hundred and ninety nine, in Testimony of which we have undersigned our names and caused the public seal to be thereunto affixed.

=ceeding two hours, and be ever after incapable of giving testimony, being juror, and of sustaining any office, civil or military, in this Territory.

And if any person or persons, shall corruptly procure any other pe to commit the crime of perjury as before defined, he, she or they so offend shall upon conviction thereof, suffer the same punishments and disab as in the case of actual perjury.

Larceny

If any person shall be convicted, either by his or her own confession the testimony of credible evidence, before any two Justices of the peace, in their respective counties, of having feloniously stolen any money, goods or chattels (the same being under the value of three dollars) the offender shall have Judg =ment, to be immediately and publicly whipped, upon his or her bare back, not exceeding fifteen lashes, or be fined in any sum, at the discretion of the said Justices, not exceeding six dollars; and if able to make restitution, besides, to the party wronged; paying also the charges of prosecution and whipping or otherwise shall be sent to the work house, to be kept at hard labour for want of such work house, to be committed to prison, for such charges, fo a term not exceeding twelve days.

Provided always, that if the party so charged, with such larceny, request to be tried at the court of general quarter sessions of the peace, to be held for th county respectively; the same shall be granted by the said Justices, the offending party giving security to appear, and answer at the said court; otherwise he or she, shall be committed as is usual in such cases: but if the party so charged with larceny, be a servant or servants, he, she or they shall not have any appeal, unless the master, mistress or friend, of the party charged, shall become security, for his, her or their appearance at the next court, as in such ca

One or more of the Justices, who shall render Judgement, by virtue of th law, shall keep fair records, of his or their proceedings therein.

If any person or persons shall steal or purloin, from any other pe persons, any money, goods, wares or merchandize, or any other personal p perty, or thing whatever, exceeding the value specified in the preceding sectio of this law; he, she or they, so offending, shall be deemed guilty of larceny, and u =on conviction, before the court of general quarter sessions of the peace, shal for the first offence, restore to the owner the thing stolen, and pay to him the value thereof, or twofold the value thereof, if the thing stolen be not restored; and shall be fined in a sum, not exceeding two fold the value of the thing or goods stolen; or shall be whipped, not exceeding thirty one stripes, at the discretion of the court: upon a second conviction, restitution and payment shall be made to the owner, as aforesaid, a fine shall be set and paid to the Territory, not exceeding fourfold the value as aforesaid, and the offender

A Law establishing a court of probate

There shall be appointed one Judge of probate in each county, wh it shall be, to take the proof of last wills and testaments; and to grant let tary, and letters of administration: and to do and perform every matter and that doth, or by law may, appertain to the probate office, excepting the rend definitive sentence and final decrees.

The Judge shall hold four sessions in each and every year, and may ad from time to time, or appoint a special sessions, and at such place in the coun he may deem expedient, whenever the circumstances of the people may req
it. In all cases wherein it shall be necessary to render a definitive sentence, render a final decree, and upon a point contested, the Judge shall call to his a two of the Justices of the court of common pleas of the same county; who, togeth the Judge, shall constitute the court of probate; a majority of whom, shall ha to render final sentences and decrees; in all matters cognizable before the said co provided however, that from every definitive sentence, and from every final decre =dered by the court, there may be an appeal to the supreme court of the Territor appellant giving bond, with two sufficient sureties, to prosecute his appeal with which appeal, shall be entered upon the second day of the term, of the court appe to, and next holden for the county, in which the appeal was taken

The Judge, previously to his entering upon the duties of his office, shall be before the governor, to a true and faithful discharge thereof.

The Judge shall record last wills and testaments, and make entries of the granting of letters testamentary, and letters of administration: he shall receive on file, and carefully preserve, all bonds, inventories, accounts and other documents necessary to be perpetuated in his office.

All bonds that by this law are, or by law shall be directed to be given in the court of probate, or probate office; shall be made to the Judge, and shall be in trust to, and for the use of all persons concerned, or having interest therein; and the breach thereof, shall be extended from time to time, to, and for the relief of the party injured

The Judge shall deliver a certified copy of any bond, taken by him as aforesaid, to any person interested, and requesting the same; and he shall also produce the original bond in court, upon any trial, that shall be had for the breach of the conditions thereof, whenever required by such court; and upon refusal, or delay herein, the Judge shall forfeit and pay, to the party injured treble damages.

The Judge of probate in each county respectively, when and so often as there shall be occasion, shall be, and hereby is empowered, to allow of guardians, that shall be chosen by minors of fourteen years of age; and to appoint guardians, for such as shall be within or under that age, taking sufficient security of such guardians for the faithful discharge of their trust, and to account either with the Judge, or minor; when such minor shall arrive at the age of twenty one years, or time as the Judge upon complaint made to him shall direct. And whenever any minor above fourteen years of age, shall be cited by the Judge of probate, to choose a guardian, and such minor shall refuse, or neglect to appear; or when appearing shall refuse to choose a Guardian, or any guardian chosen by such minor, shall be unable to give sufficient security, or shall refuse the trust; in every such case, the Judge of probate, shall have the same power to appoint a guardian, as though such minor was under the age of fourteen years, provided nevertheless, that when a minor above the age of fourteen years, shall choose a guardian, such minor may make that choice certified to the Judge, by a Justice of the peace in the same county, which choice so certified, shall be deemed as good and valid, as if done in the said Judges presence.

And it shall be in the power of the Judges of the probate of wills, within their respective counties, from time to time (upon request made by the friends or relations of any Idiot, non compos, or lunatic person, or by any overseer of the poor in the township, where such Idiot, non compos, or lunatic lives, or is an Inhabitant) by his writ, to direct the sheriff of the county, to summon twelve freeholders, good and discreet men, of the same township, to make inquisition thereinto; and if such person said to be an idiot, lunatic, or distracted person, shall be adjudged by such inquest (or the major part of them) to be incapable to take care of him or herself, and they shall certify the same, under their hands to the Judge; the said Judge of probate, shall be empowered to assign some suitable person or persons to be guardian or guardians, to such idiot, lunatic, non compos, or distracted person or ample a manner as the said idiot, lunatic, non compos or distracted person, might or could, were they restored to the full use of their rational faculties a shall be also subject to the payment of all just debts, owing by such person which were contracted before his or her distraction, out of their personal esta or in case that be insufficient, then out of the real estate; in such way and manner as executors or administrators, may, or shall by law, be enabled discharge the debts of deceased persons, when the personal estate of such dece persons shall be found insufficient. And in case any such idiot, lunatic, or dist =ed person, shall be restored to the use of his or her reason, the residue and rema of the estate, real and personal, shall be returned and delivered to him or her in case of his or her death, to his or her heirs, executors or administrators; the guardian or guardians, having first such reasonable allowance out of the s for their charge and trouble, as the Judge of probate shall order.

The Judges of probate in their respective counties, may also, as occasion re require; appoint guardians, for the children of lunatics, idiots, non compos or conveyances, which shall be brought to him for that purpose, according to the true intent and meaning of this Law.

And all Deeds to be recorded in pursuance of this Law, whereby any estate =heritance in fee simple, shall hereafter be limited to the grantor or his heirs, the words grant, bargain, sell, shall be adjudged an express covenant to the grantee his heirs and assigns, to wit; that the grantor was seized of an indefeasible in fee simple, freed from incumbrances, done or suffered from the grantor, (ex the rents and services that may be reserved) as also for quiet enjoyment again the grantor his heirs and assigns, unless limited by express words contained in su

Deed, and that the grantee, his heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, ma in any action, assign breaches, as if such covenants were expressly inserted.

Provided always, that this Law shall not extend to leases at rack rent, or to leas not exceeding one and twenty years where the actual possession goes with the lease

If any person shall forge any entry of the acknowledgments, certificates or ind

=ments, whereby the freehold or inheritance of any man may be charged, he sh be liable to the penalties against forgers of false Deeds. And if any person sha perjure himself in any of the cases herein above mentioned, he shall incur th like penalties as if the oath or affirmation had been in any court of record.

Every mortgagee of any real or personal estates, in this Territory, having rece full satisfaction, and payment, of all such sum or sums of money, as are real

Due to him by such mortgage, shall, at the request of the mortgager, enter satisf

=on upon the margin of the record of such mortgage, recorded in the said offic which shall for ever thereafter, discharge, Defeat, and release the same, and likewise bar all actions brought, or to be brought thereupon.

And if such mortgagee, by himself or his attorney, shall not within three months after request and tender made, for his reasonable charges, repair to the said office, and there make acknowledgment as aforesaid: he, the or they, neglecting so to do, shall for every such offence, forfeit and pay unto the party or parties aggrieved, any sum not exceeding the mortgage money: to be recovered in any court of record, by bill, plaint or information.

Before the recorders enter upon their respective Duties, they shall become bound to the governor and his successors, with one or more sufficient sureties, in a bond for fifteen Hundred Dollars; conditioned for the true and faithful Discharge of the Duties of their office, and for delivering up the records, and other writings belonging to the said office, whole, safe, and undefaced, to their successors in the said office, which said respective bonds, shall be filed in the secretarys office, and there safely kept, in order to be made use of, for making satisfaction to the parties that shall be Damnified, or aggrieved as is or shall be in such cases directed by law.

And no recorder under this law, shall enter upon, or officiate as such, before he has given security as aforesaid; upon pain of forfeiting the sum of three Hundred Dollars one half to the Territory, and the other half to him or them, that shall sue for the same; to be recovered as aforesaid.

All deeds and conveyances, which shall be made and executed within this Territory, of, or concerning any lands, tenements, or hereditaments therein, or which

=by the same may be any way effected, in law or equity, shall be acknowledged one of the grantors or bargainors, or proved by one or more of the subscribing wit=nesses, to such deed, before one of the Judges of the supreme court, or before one of the Justices of the court of common pleas, or quarter sessions of the peace, of the coun-where the lands conveyed do lie: and shall be recorded in the recorders office, of county where such lands or hereditaments are lying and being, within twelve months, after the execution of such deeds or conveyances: and every such deed and conveyance that shall at any time after the publication hereof, be made and executed, and which shall not be proved and recorded as aforesaid, shall be adjudged fraudelent and void against any subsequent purchaser, or mortgagee for valuable consideration: unless such deed or conveyance be recorded as foresaid, before the proving and recording of the deed of conveyance, under which such subsequent purchaser or mortgagee shall claim.

Where the grantors and witnesses of any deed or conveyance are deceased, or cannot be had, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Judges of the supreme Court, or any

Justice of the court of common pleas of the county where the lands lie, to take the examination of any witness or witnesses, on oath or affirmation to prove the hand writ=ing of such deceased witness or witnesses: or where such proof cannot be had, that to prove the hand writting of the grantor or grantors; which shall be certified by the Judge or Justice, before whom such proof shall be made: and such deed or con=veyance being so proved, shall be recorded as usual in other cases directed above by this law

Every recorder shall keep a fair book, in which he shall immediately make an [illegible] every deed or writing, brought into his office to be recorded; mentioning therein the da[illegible] the parties, and the place where the lands, tenements or hereditaments, granted or co[illegible] veyed by the said deed or writing are situate; dating the same entry on the day i[illegible] which such deed or writing, was brought into his office; and shall record all su[illegible] deeds and writings, in regular succession, according to their priority, or time of being brought into the said office; and shall also immediately give a receipt to the person bringing such deed, or writing to be recorded, bearing date on the same da[illegible] with the entry, and containing the abstract aforesaid; for which entry and receip[illegible] he shall take or receive no fee or reward whatever. And if any recorder shall record any deed or writing before another first brought into his office to be reco[illegible] =ed, or in any other manner than is herein directed; or shall neglect or refuse to make such an entry, or to give such a receipt as is herein before directed; or shall directly or indirectly, take or receive any fee or reward for such entry and receipt, or either of them; he shall forfeit and pay, for every such offence, a sum not exceeding three Hundred, nor less than one Hundred Dollars: one half to the use of the Territory, and the other half to the use of him or them that shall sue for the same: to be recovered in any court of record, by action of debt, bill or plaint; wherein no essoin, protection, or wager of law, or more than one Imparlan[illegible] shall be granted.

Treasurers.

It shall be the duty of the County Treasurers, who may be appointed to receive and keep for the use of the proper counties or Territory, all fines, dues, and amerc forfeitures, revenues, and emoluments, which are, or may hereafter be due, gi coming or accruing, to the use and benifit of the same: according to the laws, r regulations or Government of the Territory.

They shall from time to time pay, and appropriate such sum or sums of m as may come to their Hands as Treasurers, in the manner and form, and o such occasions as shall be by law Directed. And for the faithful discharge of the duty as Treasurers, they shall give bonds to the Governor and his successors, w two sufficient sureties, in the penal sum of three Thousand Dollars.

The said Treasurers shall keep fair and proper books of entries and accounts of all monies received, and of the rates and assessments made or to be made, also of their Disbursments and payments: which books and accounts, they shall lay before the legislature of the Territory, or the governor in the recess of the legislature, and settle their accounts with him, or that body, as often as they shall be thereunto required.

The said Treasurers shall have power, and are hereby authorised, to demand of, and to sue, and prosecute to Judgment and effect, by means of the attorney prosecuting the pleas of the united states, every person having in possession, and neglecting to pay the same when due, and oweing to the Territory, or Counties thereof, any sum of money accruing to, or received for the use, either of the coun =ties or Territory. And for this purpose they shall be furnished by the clerks, of the several courts of Justice respectively, once in every year with authenticated copies from the records and dockets of their respective courts, of all forfeitures, fines, amerciaments, escheats, Judgments, and orders, entered in such courts whereby monies may be accruing or arrising to the use of the counties or Territory, And if any clerk as aforesaid, shall neglect his duty herein, he shall be liable to pay a fine to the use of the Territory, at the Discretion of the court where tried, not exceeding two Hundred Dollars, to be levied by complaint of any Treasurer, or of any attorney prosecuting the pleas of the United States, and conviction thereon had, in the supreme court of the Territory, or in any of the courts of General quarter sessions of the peace in the respective counties.

If any Treasurer shall be removed from office, he shall deliver up to his successor, all the books, public accounts, and papers, belonging to his office, whole, intire and undefaced under the penalty of three Thousand Dollars, to be recovered in manner and for the uses herein before mentioned. And where any Treasurer hath been removed by death the executors or administrators, of such deceased, shall in like manner deliver up the books, and public papers relative to the said public accounts to the succeeding Treasurer, under the same penalties, and to be recovered and appropriated, as aforesaid.

And it is provided, that if a Treasurer General should be appointed, it shall be his special duty, to receive and keep in the Treasury of the Territory, for the use of this of this Territory; all dues, fines, amerciaments, forfeitures, revenues, and emoluments, which are, or hereafter may be due, given, coming, or accrueing to the use and benefit of the Territory. And to this end the county Treasurers, shall pay into his hands, all monies which they may be possessed of, and belonging unto the

which, and all other monies, that may come to his hands, he shall pay, or cause to be pa in the manner, and to the purposes directed by law. And he shall have the same pow and authority to enforce the payment of all dues, to the Territory, as is herein befo vested in the County Treasurers. — He shall keep fair books of entries and accou of all monies, which may have come to his hands as Treasurer general, and also of all monies paid out of the general Treasury, to whom and for what purpose paid and be governed in the settlement of his accounts, by the same rules as are provide for the county Treasurers, He shall also be liable to the same penalties in default as the said county Treasurers, and become bound for the faithful discharge of his duty, as Treasurer general, in the penal sum of four Thousand Dollars, with t sufficient sureties unto the governor and his successors in office.

The Treasurers shall and may retain for their own use, out of all public monies wh shall come to their hands, as a full compensation for all services and expences incidental to their office, a sum after the rate of six per centum and no more

A Law concerning Aliens and contagious Diseases

To prevent the admission of Foreigners of Infamous character into this Territory, and the evils to be apprehended from the residence herein, of persons owing no allegiance to the United States, the Governor is authorised from time to time by proclamation or otherwise to require sufficient testimonials of the good reputation of Aliens offering to come within the Territory. And from them, and all others not owing allegiance to the United States, and residing within this Territory, whom he shall have reasonable grounds to suspect of being concerned in any treasonable or secret machinations against the Government he may demand bonds, with sureties, for their good behaviour in any penal sum (sufficient in the opinion of a Territorial Judge) and in case of refusal, or inability to give the same, he may compel them to depart the Territory, or commit them to prison.

And it shall be the duty of each and every alien within this Territory immediately after the publication of this Law, to make report of himself in writing, to some one of the conservators of the peace, specifying therein his age, place of nativity, the country whence he came, the nation to which he belongs and owes allegiance, his occupation, and the arms and ammunition that he is possessed of, and every alien who shall neglect or refuse obedience to Law, shall be fined in a sum not exceeding three Hundered dollars, to and f the use of this Territory, to be recovered by information or Indictment in an court of record having cognizance of the same.

2. [redacted] to provide as fare as possible against the fatal calamities of contagious Diseas[redacted], which have so frequently desolated great Towns and cities in the Unite States, and extended their baneful influence to the smaller settlements; it is declared lawful for the Governor, upon information from any physician within this Territory, that the plague, yellow Fever, or small pox, or other con =tagious desorder, is at any house in the Town or country, or on board any boat or vessel at or [redacted] the shores of the said Territory, to take such measures to pre =vent a communication of the infection, and for the aid and comfort of the sick as shall occur meet. And all expences incurred in the prosecution of this humane Intention, may in the first instance be made by the Territory, and upon the warrant of the Governor: whenever there shall be monies sufficient in the Territorial Treasury; but in all cases the said expences shall be reimbursed by the proper persons, being of ability to pay the same.

A Law for the regulation of Slaves

No slave shall go from the tenements of his master, or other person with whom he lives, without a pass, or some letter or token, whereby it shall fully appear that he is proceeding by authority, from his master, employer or overseer; if he does it shall be lawful for any person to apprehend, and carry him before a Justice of the peace, to be by his order punished by stripes or not, in his discretion.

If any slave shall presume to come, and be upon the plantation, of any person whatsoever, without licence in writing from his or her owner or overseer, not being sent upon lawful busness, it shall be lawful for the owner or overseer of such plantation, to give or order such slave, ten lashes on his or her bare back for every such offence.

No negro, or mulatto whatsoever, shall keep or carry any gun, powder, shot, club, or other weapon whatsoever, offensive or defensive, but all and every gun, weapon and ammunition found in the possession, or custody of any negro or mulatto, may be seized by any person, and upon due proof thereof made before any Justice of the peace, of the county where such seizure shall be, shall by his order be forfeited to the seizor, for his own use, and moreover every such offender shall have and receive, by order of such

Justice, any number of lashes not exceeding thirty nine, on his or her bare back, well laid on for every such offence.

Provided nevertheless, that the commanding officers of Legions, may grant in their respective counties, permission in writing to any free negro or mu=latto, being a housekeeper, to carry arms and ammunition, for any time not exceeding twelve months and revocable at pleasure; and to any slave or slaves, the like privilege, on application of their owner, shewing sufficient cause, in the opinion of the said commanding officer, why such indul=gence should be granted. And the commanding officers of Legions, shall make report to the commander in chief, within one month after the date of all Licences granted in pursuance of this law.

Riots, routs, unlawful assemblies, trespasses and seditious speeches, by a slave or slaves, shall be punished with stripes not exceeding fifty, at the discretion of a Justice of the peace, and imprisonment for one month, and he who will, may apprehend and carry him, her or them before such Justice.

And to prevent the inconveniencies arrising by the meetings of slaves. Be it further enacted, that if any master, mistress, or overseer, shall knowingly permit or suffer, any slave not belonging to him or her, to be and remain upon his or her plantation, above two hours at one time, without leave of the owner or overseer of such slave, he or she so permitting, shall forfeit and pay four Dollars for every such offence; and every owner or overseer of a plantation who shall so permit or suffer, more than five negros or slaves, other than h[illegible] or her own, to be, and remain upon his or her plantation or quarter, at any [illegible] time, shall forfeit and pay two dollars for each negro or slave, above that num[illegible] ber; which said several forfeitures shall be to the informer, and recoverable with co[illegible] before any Justice of the peace, of the county, where such offence shall be committed

Provided always, that nothing herein contained, shall be construed to prohibit the negros or slaves of one and the same owner, though seated at different quarters, from meeting with their owners or overseers leave, upon any plantation to such owner belonging; nor to restrain the meeting of slaves on their owners or overseers business, so as such meeting be not in the night, nor to prohibit their meeting on any other lawful occasion, by licen[illegible] in writing from their owner or overseer.

If any white person, free negro, or mulatto, shall at any time be found in company with slaves, at any unlawful meeting, or shall harbour or entertain any slave, without the consent of his or her owner, such person being thereof convicted before any Justice of the peace, shall forfeit and pay ten dollars for every such offence, to the informer with costs, recoverable before such Justice; or on failure of present payment, shall receive on his or her bare back, twenty Lashes well laid on, by order of the Justice before whom such conviction shall be.

And every Justice of the peace, upon his own knowledge of such unlawful meeting, or information thereof to him made, within ten days after, shall issue his warrant to apprehend the persons so met, or assembled, and cause them to be brought before himself, or any other Justice of this county, to be dealt with this act directs: and every Justice failing herein, shall forfeit and pay twenty Dollars for every such failure. And every Sheriff who shall fail, upon know=ledge or information of such meeting, to endeavour to suppress the same, and bring the offenders before some Justice of the peace, to receive due punish=ment, shall be liable to the like penalty of twenty Dollars, both which penalt shall be to the informer, and recoverable with costs, before any court of record having cognizance of the same: And every under sheriff or constable who upon knowledge or information of such meeting, shall fail to perform his Duty in suppressing the same, and apprehending the persons so assembled, shall forfeit and pay ten Dollars, for every such failure to the informer, recoverable with costs before any Justice of the county wherein such failure shall be.

And No person whatever shall buy, sell or receive, of, to, or from any slave, any coin or commodity whatsoever, without the Leave or consent of the master, owner, or overseer, of such slave in writing, expressive of the article so permitted to be bought, sold or bartered: and if any person shall presume to deal with any slave, without such leave or consent, he or she so offending, shall forfeit and pay, to the master or owner of such slave, fourtimes the value of such article so bought, sold or exchanged, with full costs by action upon the case in the court of quarter sessions in this Territory, where the sum shall amount to twelve Dollars or upwards, otherwise to be recovered by way of warrant, before any Justice of the peace of the county in which the matter shall have originated and shall also forfeit and pay the further sum of ten Dollars, to any person who shall sue for the same, with costs, before any Justice of the peace:

or on failure or refusing so to pay, shall by order of such Justice, be commit-ted to prison, until he or she make such payment; and any slave offering to sell without such permit, shall receive ten lashes, by order of any Justice of the peace, before whom he or she is convicted.

If any negro or bond mulatto, shall at any time, lift his or her hand in opposition to any person not being a negro, or mulatto, he or she so offending, shall for every such offence, upon conviction before a Justice of the peace, of the county where such offence shall be committed, receive thirty lashes on his or her bare back, well laid on, by order of such Justice.

It is hereby declared unlawful for any owner of slaves within this Ter-ritory, to licence them to go at large to trade as if free, in consideration of stipulated wages, to be paid by such slaves; and if any slave shall be so found going at large, either trading, or offering his or her service for hire, with his or her masters or owners consent, such master or owner, so permitting, shall forfeit and pay, for every such offence, the sum of twenty Dollars, to be recovered by action of Debt in any court of [redacted] this Territory, and applied towards lessening the county levy, where such [redacted] shall be found trading or offering his or her service as aforesaid.

All runaway slaves may be lawfully apprehended, by any person or [redacted] carried [redacted] the next Justice of the peace, who shall either commit them to the county Goal, or send them to their owners if known, who shall pay for every slave so taken, the sum of six Dollars, to the taker up, and also all reasonable costs and charges. And in order to establish, what slaves shall be considered as runaways; if any slave shall absent him or herself from his or her usual place of residence, or owners service without leave, the master, mistress or overseer, shall be obliged to give in to the next Justice of the peace, the name, with a description of the person of such slave, within one week after such slave shall have absented him or herself: all such slaves, so reported, shall be carried as runaways, and the taker up shall be intitled to the above reward. And if any master, mistress or overseer, shall neglect to give in the information above required, such master, mistress or overseer, shall forfeit and pay, one Dollar for each Day, that such information shall have been omitted; which penalty shall be recoverable before any Justice of the peace, by such person as shall sue for the same.

All slaves are prohibited from keeping Dogs, under any pretence or consideration whatsoever: and the slave or slaves so offending, upon complaint thereof, before any Justice of the peace, shall be punished with for every such offence; and the master or owner, who shall permit his

to keep dogs, contrary to this law, shall forfeit and pay the sum of five dollar for each and every Dog so kept, and for the use of the person complaining: and moreover, shall make [redacted] Damages done by dogs appertaining to, or kept by any of his [redacted] or their slaves.

No slave shall be allowed to own any horse, mare or Gelding, and any slave actually owning or having such property, shall before the first day of June next ensuing, sell and dispose of them, under penalty of forfeiture and sale; one moiety of the proceeds, for the use of the Territory, and the other moiety to any person who shall sue for the same. It is also forbidd to slaves to keep hogs running at large, and to keep more in inclosures than they can conveniently maintain, the number of which to be regulated by their several owners, and to be destin[redacted]y marked, and a rigester thereof made for the inspection of any person, who shall claim to see the same.

And whereas, it has been the humane policy of all civilized nations, where slavery has been permitted, to protect this useful but degraded class of men, from extreme cruelty, and oppression. Be it further enacted, that no cru or unusual punishments shall be inflicted on any slave within this Territory: and any owner of slaves authorizing or permitting the same, shall on conviction thereof before any court having cognizance, be fin[redacted] according to the nature of the offence, and at the discretion of the C[illegible] in any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars to and for the use of the Territory.

The foregoing is hereby declared to be a law of the Mississippi [illegible]

[illegible]ritory: this thirteith day of M[illegible]h, anno Domini one thou=sand [illegible]ven hundred and ninety nine. In testimony of which we have undersigned our names, and caused the public seal

An Law for the dividing the Counties into Townships and constituting constables and overseers of the poor.

Be it enacted, That as soon as may be after the publication of this act, the court of general quarter sessions of the peace, in the several counties within the Territory; shall in their sessions respectively, proceed to devide the said counties into townships, assigning to such townships respectively, such limits and bounds, natural or imaginary, as shall appear to be most proper; having due regard to the extent of country, and number of inhabitants residing within the same; and the townships or any of them, to subdivide from time to time, whenever the interest or convenience of the inhabitants thereof, may seem to require it. And the Justices in session as aforesaid, shall cause the clerk of the court, to enter of record, on the docket of the same court, the particular time, when each township is set off, and the specific boundaries assigned thereto.

And be it enacted that the said Justices in session, in each and every county shall respectively nominate, and appoint annually, in every township within their county, one or more constables, each whom shall continue to serve as a constable of the township specially, and as a constable of the county generally for the term of one year, next ensuing his appointment: and his power and duty shall be, to serve all such summonses, warrants, subpoenas, mittimuses, and other lawful precepts, as shall be directed to him specially, or to him ge with the others, or any constable of the county, and be put into his hands for the purpose of service. And generally to do and perform all duties and services, incumbent on him, as an officer of the township or county, or of the several courts of law and justice, which may from time to time, be appointed and held, in the county [illegible] may be a constable. And further to do all and singular the Duties or hereafter to be enjoined by law.

And any person accepting the office of constable, shall, before he enters on the duties thereof, take the following oath, before the court of General quarter sessions, or (in the vacation thereof) before a justice of the peace, who shall enter the same on his docket, that is to say. — "I A.B, do solemnly and sincerely swear, that I will faithfully and truly do my duty as a constable of the county of C. — and impartially demean myself in office, according to my best understanding. So help me God." And when any person accepting such office of constable, shall declare himself conscientiously scrupulous against taking an oath, then the following affirmation shall in like manner be administered, instead thereof: that is to say. "I A.B, do solemnly sincerely and truly declare and affirm, that I will faithfully and truly do my duty as a constable of the county of C. — and impartially demean myself in office, according to my best understanding." Which affirmation shall be entered on the docket of the justice administering the same.

And be it further enacted, That the said Justices in session, in their respective counties, shall annually appoint, one or more overseers of the poor, in each and very township of the county, to serve for the term of one whole year; and it shall be the duty of every such overseer, to make report to any Justice of the peace, in and for the county, of all vagrant persons, likely to become chargeable to the town=ship in which he is appointed overseer, and also to take notice of all the poor families, and persons residing in the township; and enquire into the means by which they are supported, and maintained. And whenever he shall discover any person, or family, really suffering through poverty, sickness accident, or any misfortune, or inability, which may render him, her or them, a wretched and proper object of public charity; it shall be his duty, and he is hereby strictly enjoined, to give immediate information thereof, to a Justice of the peace, acting in and for the same county. Legal means may be taken by such Justice, to afford the person or persons so suffering, proper and seasonable relief. And every overseer of the poor, appointed as aforesaid, shall take the same oath or af=firmation, according to his conscience, to be administered and entered by the same authority, and in the same manner, as is prescribed in this act for a constable; changing only the words "a constable" to the words "an overseer of the poor" and the word "county" to that of "Township"

Provided that the boundaries of the townships under this law, and the ap=pointment of officers therein, shall be with the approbation of the Governor.

The foregoing is hereby declared to be a law of the Mississippi Territory, this third day of april anno Domini, one thousand seven hundred and ninety nine. In testimony of which we have undersigned our names and caused the public seal to be there-unto affixed.

April [illegible]ritory

An Law directing the manner in which money shall be raised and levied, to defray the charges which may arise within the several counties.

[illegible] Court of general Quarter Sessions of the peace, at the first term which shall be held within each of the counties, and annually ever afterwards shall make an estimate, of such sum or sums of money, as they according to their best [illegible]ll and Judgment, shall think sufficient to defray the necessary charges, of their respective counties for one year, including therein, the making and keeping in repair, all public roads, and specifying as nearly as may be, every purpose for which such sums may be necessary, and which estimate, the clerk of the said court, is hereby directed to lay before the Governor, and one or more of the Territorial Judges, from time to time; as soon as may be after such estimate shall have been formed; so that such sum as may be necessary, and by them approved may be laid on the Inhabitants, and others who [illegible]rt to be assessed, in each and every county respectively.

The sums which shall from time to time be allowed by the Governor, and one or more of the Territorial Judges, and laid on the several counties, for the necessary charges therein; shall be apportioned on the several Towns, within the respective counties, by Commissioners Biennially to be appointed, by the Justices of the court of common pleas, with the approbation of the Governor.— And the number of said commissioners, shall be ascertained by the following rule

In every town one commissioner shall be appointed, and when any Town shall consist of sixty free male Inhabitants, of twenty one years of age and upwards, shall [redacted] two commissioners; and if of one hundred such Inhabitants, or more they shall [redacted] three Commissioners. And the said commissioners shall meet at a time and place to be appointed by the said Justices of the court of common pleas, and apportion the said sum or sums to be allowed by the Governor, and one or more of the Judges, on the towns within the respective counties as aforesaid, in order to which apportionment, they shall obtain the names and surnames, of all and every free persons, dwelling or residing within the limits of those Townships, or places with which they shall be charged. And the names of all freemen, Inmates, hired male servants (being twenty one years of age) and whether profitable or chargeable to the employers, and all persons residing or sojourning in every of the said townships or places, and a list of all lands, not being the property of the united states, or appropriated to public uses; the tenements, houses, cabbins or other buildings wherein people dwell, and which are rented, and afford an income to the owners. And of all Ferries, stores, shops, warehouses, mills, Gins, Keel or batteau built boats, of the burthen of twenty barrels and upwards, producing any yearly income and of the bound male servants, and male slaves, above the age of sixteen, and not exceeding fifty; draught oxen, saddle and draught horses, cows pened or kept up, and immediately productive to the owners; together with the stock of cattle, — including sheep, and swine, intended for market, and thereby pe[illegible] annual income and profit: and the said commissioners, are hereby [illegible] and required, to demand from all free persons as aforesaid, true and correct[illegible] and e[illegible]rations, as is herein before specified; and if any person on bein[illegible] notified [illegible] or more of the commissioners in person, or by writing left at th[illegible] house, or usual [illegible] of residence; shall refuse or neglect to make the same in writing, for the term of ten days, it shall be the duty of two or more of the com= =missioners, [illegible]ding nearest to the defaulter, to enter into and upon the lands, houses and premises, to him belonging; and according to the best information which they can obtain, and on their own view, to make and subscribe the list and enumeration required, which shall be reputed good and sufficient, for the purposes of this law: and the person so failing or neglecting, unless in case of sickness, or absence from home, for the whole period from the leaving of such noti =fication or information, shall be doubly taxed. And if any person shall make out or deliver any false or fraudulent list or enumeration, with intent to evade or defeat this law, and being thereof convicted, before any court, having competent jurisdiction, he shall be fined in a sum not exceeding one hundred Dollars, at the discretion of the court, and shall pay all costs, and charges of prosecution; the one half of which fine, shall be to the use of the county, where the offence shall happen, and for the purposes of lessening such counties rates, a levies; and the other half to the use of the person prosecuting for the same to effect

The said Justices of the court of common pleas, in each county aforesaid, annually, shall biennially appoint in each township, with the approbation of the governor, three or more judicious men, a majority of whom shall have power to assess and apportion the sum or sums, which by the order of the commissioners is directed to be assessed upon the towns, for which they shall be appointed. And for this purpose, they shall assemble at the place, where the Court of Quarter Sessions shall be annually held; and upon the order of the aforesaid commissioners, which they are hereby required to issue, so soon as they conveniently can, after they shall have obtained the lists, and enumerations before required: and the said assessors shall then and there, proceed to make the assessments, upon themselves, and all others impartially, receiving from the commissioners, the aforesaid lists and enumerations, and informing themselves, by the oaths of the said commissioners, and other credible persons, or any lawful ways and means, what persons and estates in their respective Townships, are rateable by this law, and the yearly profit accruing from the same; and they shall have special regard to such profit, taxing all lands, in just proportion to their value; except those before excepted, and also all property belonging to the United States, Territory, or counties respectively, and assessing no single man, not having visible property to the amount of one Hundred Dollars, more than one Dollar per head annually, save by a due proportion of labour in the opening, and repairing high ways, and public roads. And the property of non residents in this Territory, having no legal representatives within the same, shall never be distrained for any proportion of County [redacted] levies, until they shall be served with six months notice of their assessments, by advertisement to be published in some one Gazette, in, or most convenient to the Territory, which notice it shall be the duty of the commissioners to make, with delay, and [redacted] the expiration of the time limited, they shall be distrained to the full amount, and ten per centum from the time of assessment, and in manner as hereinafter provided, for actual residents; and in case they have no goods or chattels, whereon to make Distress, it shall be lawful, for the court of quarter sessions, to issue a warrant to the sheriff, to sell at public auction, so much, and such part, of each tract of land, charged with Taxes, as will raise a sum of money sufficient to pay the same, with costs and charges; and he shall advertise the land, by imaginary metes and bounds, where it lies; the time and place of of sale, for at least twenty days previous to the sale, at the door of the House, where the general quarter sessions are held, and during one term of the court, and also in three other public places, and in the Township where the land lies. The vendue shall be fair, in open daylight, and the land struck off to the highest bidder, who shall be able to pay down the money. After such sale it shall be the duty of the Sheriff, to deliver to the purchaser, a certificate of the quantity of land sold, describing fully the same, and the presiding Justice of the Court of common pleas, shall thereupon convey the same land to the purchaser, in due form of law, which conveyance shall vest in the purchaser, all the right and interest of the proprietor for whose tax the land shall be sold, and in consideration of law, shall alone the possession of the land in the purchaser. Provided, that where any lands and purchased as aforesaid, shall thereafter appear to be the property of the United States; the sum or sums of money, which shall have been paid, for the same; shall be reimbursed, with legal interest by the proper County, and the sale thereupon become null and void. And it is further provided, that in all cases where taxes shall be paid upon unimproved lands, claimed by any person or persons, resident or non resident within this Territory, and such lands shall hereafter be decreed the property of any other person or persons; that all such lands shall be liable to the party aggrieved, for full reimbursement, with legal Interest, by an action in the case in any court having competent jurisdiction.

All free men not being householders, nor having a certain place of abode, and all hired male servants, shall be taxed at the place where they reside, at the time of making the lists, and enumerations as aforesaid; and each and every house=holder, shall at the request of the commissioners, or any one of them; give an account of the names, qualifications, and estates of such persons, as shall sojourn lodge, or dwell in their respective houses, under the penalty of ten dollars, to be recovered before any Justice of the peace, in the proper county; and which shall be applied to lessening the rates and levies thereof. And if any freeman or hired male servants as aforesaid, shall not be found at the place where they resided, when their names were taken by the commissioners, when the assessment of such householders shall be demanded; then, unless such p or hired servants shall have paid, by themselves or friends, the said householders shall be liable therefor; and the same shall be recovered from them, as is here after provided, for the recovery of assessments.— And the said assessors in ma any assessments, by virtue of this law, shall ass the individuals of their fam according to their best judgment, in money or specific articles, agreeably to the order of assessment from the Commissioners. And all assessors appointed as aforesaid, shall severally take and subscribe the following oath, before one of the Justices of the Quoram in the county Viz!, I A. B, do solemnly and sin =cerely swear (or affirm as the case may be) that I will to the best of my judg =ment & information impartially, and faithfully execute the office of assessor in the township of —C— agreeably to law and Justice, so help me God.

—A. B.—
which oath or affirmation, shall also be taken, and subscribed before one of the Justices of the quoram in the county (mutatis mutandis) by each and eve Commissioner, who may be appointed agreeably to this law, before the shall enter upon the Duties of their office.

All appointments of commissioners and assessors under this law, shall be for two years only; and any person not being in civil commision, within the Territory, appointed a commissioner or assessor, who shall refuse to take the oath or affirmation, and faithfully perform the duties of his appointment shall be fined by the court of common pleas, in the sum of fifty Dollars, to the use of the proper county, and another shall be appointed in his stead.

provided, that no man shall be compelled to serve as commissioner or as =sessor, more than two years in six.

Within the time limited by the order of assessment, which shall be given by the commissioners without unnecessary delay, the assessors of each town shall lodge with the prothonotary of the court of common pleas, a list of the assessment by them made, in pursuance of such order of assessment, and =der their hands and seals, on penalty of paying a fine, not exceeding one Hundred Dollars each, to the use of the county. And the prothonotary shall from the assessors lists lodged as aforesaid, make out a duplicate thereof, with a warrant of distress under his hand and the seal of the court, directed to the sheriff, requiring him to collect and pay the same to the Treasurer of the county, for the use of the county as aforesaid.

If any person shall refuse to pay the sum or sums of money which he shall be assessed, as his proportion of any rate or assessment, laid as aforesaid,

(to defray the expences of the county to which he belongs, or where he has property) in the list or duplicate committed to a sheriff, by virtue of the warrant to him given, it shall be lawful for such sheriff and he is hereby required, in such case to distrain the person so refusing, by his goods or Chattels, and the distress so taken, to keep for the space of four days, at the cost and charges of the owner thereof; and if the owner do not pay the sum or sums of money, so assessed on him

(or if the tax be in specific articles, he do not deliver or tender the same at the place assigned) within the space of four days, then the said distress shall be openly sold at public auction, by the said sheriff, for the payment of the said money; notice of such sale being set up in some public place in the same Township, forty eight hours before the same, and after the expiration of the four days aforesaid: and the overplus on any such sale, if any, over and above the charges of taking, and keeping the said distress, and costs of sale, to be immediately returned to the owner, with an account in writing of the sale and charges thereon.

If any person assessed as aforesaid, shall refuse or neglect to pay the sum or sums assessed, for the space of twelve days, after demand thereof being made, and shall also neglect to shew to the sheriff, sufficient goods or chattels, whereon distress may be levied; in every such case the sheriff may take the body of the person so refusing into his custody, and him commit to the common gaol of the county, there to remain until the same be paid, or he be thence delivered by due order of law: and the keeper of the gaol in the several counties, is hereby authorised and required, to receive such delinquent into the common gaol as aforesaid. provided nevertheless, that in all cases where in the opinion of two or more Justices of the peace, there is just ground to fear that any person or persons assessed as aforesaid, may abscond before the expiration of the twelve days, in such case, it shall be in the power of the sheriff, to demand immediate payment, and proceed as is heretofore directed. provided always that if any person, or the inhabitants of any town, shall think himself, or themselves unequally or unreasonably assessed, he, or they may by petition, apply to the Judges of the supreme court, or the court of common pleas in the County who are hereby empowered in their several courts, to abate or remit the sum which the complainants are assessed, and redress the grievances complained of, if they exist; and the person in whose hands money, or specific articles may be, which are so remitted or abated, shall restore the same to the person or persons, in whose favor redress is allowed, on the order of either of the aforesaid courts.

All fines mentioned in this law, and not before provided for, shall be recovered before any court or Justice, having competent jurisdiction and to the use of the proper county.

The commissioners, and assessors appointed by this law, shall be allowed at the rate of one dollar per day each, while actually doing, and performing the services contemplated herein, and such of the commissioners or assessors, as may be further employed, in recording their proceedings, and making out lists and assessments, shall receive the additional sum of fifty cents per day, while they are so employed. Their accounts shall be examined, and certified by the prothonotary of the court of common pleas, into the said court, and by a warrant from the presiding Justice, shall be paid by the Treasurer of the proper county, out of any monies belonging to the county, and not otherwise appropriated.

The sheriff shall have, and may keep out of all assessments, coming into his hands, by virtue of this law: and for full compensation for his [illegible] collecting the same; a sum not exceeding one per centum; but the court common pleas may order a further compensation at their discretion, in c of hi[illegible]ecuting warrants of distress, where payments shall be refused or [illegible]h compensation shall be at the [illegible]nce of the persons who ma be [illegible]ried in their property by virtue of this la[illegible]

An Act for the well regulating of Gaols and Prisons

Be it enacted, that when the escape of any Prisoner in a civil or criminal action shall happen through the insufficiency of the Gaol or the negligence of the Sheriff or Gaoler; the Sheriff of the County in which the escape happens, shall stand chargeable to the Plaintiff, Creditor or other Person at whose Suit, or for whose Debt, He or She was committed, or to whose use any forfeiture was adjudged, against such Prisoner

And in case the escape shall happen, through the insufficiency of the Gaol, the Court of common Pleas in the County shall have power and authority hereby, to assess the Sheriff Sums, for which such Prisoner stood committed, upon the Inhabitants of the County, in the same manner as is directed by the Law entitled an Law directing the manner in which money shall be raised and levied, to defray the Charges which may arise within the several Counties in the Territory, and to order the County Treasurer to pay the same, when collected to the Sheriff of the County, that the Sheriff may be indemnified. But every Gaol, shall be deemed good and sufficient, which is built agreeably to the Plan, which shall be proposed by Commissioners and others, and accepted by the Justices of the Court of common Pleas in the respective Counties, and always kept in good and sufficient repair.

And if the Court of common Pleas, shall not cause such assessment to be made; and if the Treasurer shall not pay) such Sum, or Sums of money, within six months next after the demand shall be laid before the said Court, then the Sheriff may bring his Action, against the Inhabitants of such County, to be heard, and tried, either in that, or in one of the adjoining Counties at the election of the Plaintiff, and an attested Copy of the Writ, being left (thirty days before a sitting of the Court, where the Action is brought) with the county Treasurer, by the Coroner of the same County, shall be held, and adjudged to be sufficient service of the Writ and notice of the Suit. And the Justices of the Court of general quarter Sessions of the peace shall have full power to appoint an Agent or Attorney to appear in behalf of the County, and defend such Action and if Judgment shall be given against the County the Contents thereof may be raised by execution levied upon the monies belonging to the County, and then in the hands of the County Treasurer which shall be made manifest by the said Treasurer's Books, for which purpose, the Officer having the Execution, shall have leave of the Treasurer in his presence to peruse his Books, and examine his Accounts with the County, and if the county funds then in the hands of the Treasurer shall be found insufficient to discharge the execution, and costs thereon, then so much of the monies, which the Treasurer may next afterwards recieve, belonging to the County, as may be necessary to discharge the ballance on the execution, and Costs shall be, and are hereby pledged, attached and bound by virtue of such execution, and shall be immediately paid over by the Treasurer so soon as they come to his Hands, until such execution be fully discharged

And be it further enacted. That if any Person or Persons shall directly, or indirectly, by any ways or means howsoever, without the knowledge, or privity of the Keeper convey any instrument, tool or thing) whatsoever, to any Prisoner; or into any Prison, whereby any Prisoner might break the Prison; or work himself, or herself unlawfully out of the same every Person so offending shall forfeit and pay, such fine as by the direction of the Court shall be imposed, not exceeding one hundred Dollars, according to the nature of the Cause of the Prisoner's commitment, or suffer such corporal punishment, not exceeding forty stripes, as the Court shall inflict. And if it shall so happen, that any Prisoner shall make his or her escape, by means of any instrument or tool, or other thing conveyed without the knowledge or privity of the Keeper, the Person so conveying the same shall be liable to pay all such Sums of money, as the Prisoner stood comitted for, if on civil process, and shall also have inflicted upon him or her, all such punishment as the escaped Prisoner would be liable unto if a Criminal, and had been convicted of the charge for which he, or she, had been committed, unless such Prisoner would be liable to capital punishment, in which case the Person assisting in such escape, shall be punished by fine, imprisonment, whipping pillory, or sitting on the Gallows, with a Rope about his or her Neck or any one or more of the said punishments, as the Court having cognizance thereof, shall think proper to inflict.

And be it further enacted, That if any Jaoler or Prison-Keeper shall voluntarily suffer any Prisoner committed unto him to escape, he shall suffer and undergo the like pains, punishments and penalties, as the Prisoner so escaping should, or ought by Law to have suffered and undergone for the Crime or Crimes wherewith he stood charged, if he had been convicted thereof. And if any Gaoler, or Prison-keeper shall through negligence suffer any Prisoner accused of any crime to escape, he shall pay such fine, as the Justices of the Court before whom he is convicted shall in their direction inflict, according to the nature of the Offence, for which the escaped Prisoner stood committed Provided nevertheless, That if any Person who may be committed for debt shall violently escape from Prison, without connivance of the Sheriff or Keeper, and the Sheriff, Gaoler or Prison Keeper shall within three months, next after such escape recover the Prisoner so escaped, and recommit him to Prison again, then the Sheriff shall be liable to nothing) farther than the Costs of such action or actions as may have been commenced against him for such escape.

And be it farther enacted, That all Warrants Mittimuses Writs and Instruments of writing) of any kind, or the attested Copies of them, by which any Prisoner may be committed, enlarged or liberated shall be safely kept (regularly filed in their order of time) in a suitable Box for the purposes, provided by the Keeper of the Gaol under the Sheriff's direction, and upon the Death or removal of any Sheriff, the Box with the contents thereof shall be delivered to his Successor in the Office, on the penalty of one hundred and fifty Dollars to be paid by the Sheriff removed, or his Executors or Administrators in case of the death of the Sheriff to be recovered by any Person, who shall prosecute therefor to effect, in any Court having Jurisdiction to try the same

And it shall be the duty of the said Justices, at the beginning every court of quarter Sessions of the peace, to enquire into the state of Gaols in their respective Counties, with regard to the sufficiency of such Prisons, the Condition and accommodation of the Prisoners, and shall from time to time take such legal measures, as may best tend to secure the Prisoners from escape, sickness and infection, and to have the Gaols cleansed from filth and vermin.

And the Sheriff shall keep separate Rooms for the Sexes, except where they are lawfully married, and be responsible that his Gaoler at all times provide proper Meat and Drink for all Criminals committed to the Goal of the County, if such Prisoners have no other convenient way of supplying themselves with Provisions, which shall always pass to them through the Hands of the Keeper, & in every case where the Sheriff or Gaoler, shall be at the expence of furnishing Meat, Drink or Firewood to a Prisoner in Goal, for a Crime, or at the Suit of the United States, who is not of sufficient ability in point of Property, to repay, or indemnify such Sheriff, or Gaoler, their reasonable Charges and Expenses for supplying such Prisoner, in every such Case, the Sheriff or Gaoler shall make out his Account thereof, and on Oath shall testify the truth of the same, before the Justices of the Court of general Quarter Sessions of the peace, who shall tax the same, as they shall think just & reasonable, and lay the amount thereof in the yearly estimate of County Charges, to be submitted to the Legislature for their allowance

And be it further enacted, that in every Case, where a person is committed to Prison, in a Civil Action, either on mesne Process, or in execution for Debt, Trespass, Slander, or other cause of Action, at the Suit of one Citizen against another, or at the Suit of an Alien Ally against a Citizen, or at the Suit of a Citizen against an Alien Ally in every such case, it shall be the duty of the Sheriff to provide only, the said Bread and Water for the Sustenance of such Prisoner, for, and during the period of thirty days after his confinement, when the Prisoner shall be supplied regularly with good and wholesome Food, by the Person at whose Suit he is committed, and on default of the Creditor, Plaintiff or Complainant to make such Provision for three days after the expiration of the Term of thirty days as aforesaid, such Prisoner shall be liberated from Confinement, and shall never after be liable for the same debt to be restrained of his liberty. And the Sheriff is hereby directed, to furnish regularly for the Term of thirty days as aforesaid to every such Prisoner, who is not of sufficient ability in point of Property to provide for his or her own Support while in Prison, and the expence and charges accruing to the Sheriff or Goaler herein, shall be repaid to him by the Prisoner so soon as the Prisoner shall be liberated from the Goal; for the recovery of which, the Sheriff or Goaler shall have his Action at Law against the Prisoner, in any Court, where the same may be cognizable. And when any Prisoner shall be committed to Goal in a Civil Action as aforesaid, and shall provide for his or her own Support in a way wherein the Sheriff or Goaler shall have no concern, it shall be the duty of the Goaler or Prison keeper to admit to the Wicket Grate, or small Window of the Prison, in which such Prisoner shall be confined, any Person who may come to administer to the Wants of such Prisoner, by furnishing him, or her with Meat or Drink, which shall be conveyed through such small Window or Grate that the Security of the Prison be not too frequently exposed, by opening the Door thereof

And be it enacted, That all Fines and Penalties arisin the breach of this Act, shall be for the use of the County, [illegible] is committed, or the Duty neglected; and the same remedy shall be for the recovery thereof as in other cases where duty is enjoined by Statute and no particular Mode of Prosecution directed. And in cases of default it shall be the duty of the Attorney prosecuting the Pleas of the United States, to prosecute for the same either by Writ or on indictment, and the Fine when recovered, shall be paid to the County Treasurer for the use of the County

April [illegible] tory.

— A Law directing the Building and Establishin[illegible] Court House, Gaol, pillory, Whipping posts and [illegible] in every County.

So [illegible] provision can be [illegible] de therefor, agreeably to a "Law [illegible] the [illegible]e in which, money shall [illegible] raised, and [illegible] to pay the charge may arise within the several counties." There shall be erected and estab[illegible] each and every County, a good and con[illegible]ent Court house, for the legal adjud ication of causes: and a strong, and sufficient Gaol or prison, for the reception an confinement of Debtors and crimina[illegible] well secured by [illegible], Iron grates, bolts locks, and also a pillory, whipping posts, and so many [illegible], as may be conven ient for the punishment of offenders. And every gaol so to be erected, shall consis of three apartments at least, one of which, shall be appropriated to the reception of Debtors.

Every Courthouse, and Gaol to be erected as aforesaid, shall be formed of suc materials, and to such Dimensions, and on such plans, as shall be directed by the Justices, of the county court of common pleas, or a majority of them, in each county; who are hereby authorized to plan and project the same: an to accept as a gift, or to purchase for the use of the County, so much gro in the towns where the courts may be ordered to sit, as they may convenient and necessary, whereon to build aforesaid. Which purchase money, shall be defrayed by the proper county, laid in the county estimate.

And the Justices of the Common pleas, or a majority of them, in each a every County shall appoint two commissioners, of industry and knowledg sufficient to plan and carry into effect, by drawing the draught, superinten =ing the foundation, and erecting and compleating of every court house, Goal, pillory, whipping post, and stocks respectively. And for the faithfu discharge of their duty in this behalf, the said Commissioners shall enter in bonds, in the sum of five hundred Dollars, with sufficient Sureties, to the Jus =tices of the common pleas, in trust for the County, and truly, to account with the said Justices, as often as they may be there required by them, for the disposition of all money or other property, by them received from time to time, from the said Justices, or Treasurer, or any other person, or by any mean whatever, for the purpose of aiding or assisting, in building the said court= =house, Goal, and other structures in the county, to which the commissioners may severally belong, and on default in the commissioners, for want of at= =tention or competent knowledge, to carry on the work with propriety, the said Justices, shall have power to discharge one or both of them, and place others in their stead, taking the same surety from them.

Every County now or hereafter to be erected and laid off, within the Ter =tory, shall defray all expences, that may attend the building and keeping good repair within itself, the Courthouse, Gaol, pillory, whipping posts, and [illegible] hereby ordered; and to this purpose, for the greater forwarding of the busines, it shall be lawful for the Justices aforesaid; and they are hereby authorized, to draw out of the hands of the Treasurer of the County, any sums of money which he may have received belonging to the County, not otherwise appropriated; and the said Justices are hereby directed, to apply the same wholly to the purposes of building a Gaol and Courthouse, pillory, whipping posts and stocks, but in every County a Gaol shall be first erected, and the Treasurer and Justices are to govern themselves accordingly. And it is hereby provided, that the gaol already building, in the Town of Natchez, shall be completed upon the present plan, in the hands of the [illegible] that the courthouse shall be built convenient thereto, upon the grounds which have been offered as a donation for the purpose, so soon as they may be conveyed in due form of law; and that all monies, which have been loaned, for the purpose of erecting the Gaol, and any further sums which may be borrowed, under the order of the Justices of the court of common pleas, for the purpose of completing the same, shall be reimbursed, with an interest of six per centum, so soon as the Sheriff shall adjust his accounts relative to the said building, with the aforesaid Justices or a majority of them, and there shall be monies sufficient in the County Treasury, and properly belonging to the County.

The foregoing is hereby declared to be a law of the Mississippi Territory

An Law for opening and regulating Highways.

Whenever a petition signed by twelve or more Citizens, Dwelling within any County in the Territory, shall be presented to the Justices, specially nam=ed in the commission, for holding the Court of general quarter sessions of the peace, for such County, while in session; praying the said Court, to order a public Highway, to be laid out through a particular part of the same County: the said Justices, are hereby authorized and required, to order a proper surveyor, with two other men, to repair to the ground pointed out in the said petition, and at the proper expence of the petitioners, to view and survey the same, truly measu=ring the distance, noting the several courses, monumenting, and numbering every miles end, and conspicuously marking, or blazing the trees, through the whole length of the way; and erecting monuments, where there shall happen to be no trees: which survey so made, shall be reported to the next sessions of the Court, and if no sufficient objections to such proposed Highway, are presented to the said court, at the same sessions to which such report shall be made; then the Justices aforesaid, shall on the last Day of their sitting in such sessions, cause such report to be entered of record, filing at the same time the original, in the office of the Clerk of the said court.

And thereupon the Justices, shall order the supervisors of the Highways, in the several Townships, as they in their discretion may think proper, and con= =ous thereto; to open the highway in such proportions, as the said Justices may think right and equitable, each supervisor, with the inhabitants of his own township, opening and rendering commodious for travelling, a given distance, or proportion, assigned by the Justices, of the said road or highway; according to the greater or less number of citizens in each township, whose inhabitants may be ordered to assist in opening the said highway.

And be it enacted, That where objections against the opening such high= =way, shall be presented to the said Justices, in due time, as aforesaid; they shall appoint three disinterested men of the county, who at the proper expence of such ob= =jectors, or opposers of the proposed Highway, shall repair to the ground, and impartially, view and examine the same, and according to their best and most candid judgment, make report in writing to the said Justices, at their next suc= =ceeding sessions, of the propriety or impropriety, usefulness or inutility of such road, or proposed highway: after the reading and due consideration of which, the said Justices may proceed according to their judgment, and order the said road to be established, and laid out according to the prayer of the first petitioners, or for that time reject the highway, and dismiss the petition.

And be it further enacted, That the said Justices, in every county, as soon as may be, after the publication of this act, in the several counties respectively, shall proceed in their sessions, to appoint once in every year, a proper number of Supervisors or overseers of the Highway, (to be approved of by the Governor) in each and every Township, in the several counties or districts; whose province and duty it shall be, to obey the orders of the said Justices, for the laying out of Highways whenever such orders shall be given as aforesaid. And it shall also be the duty of the said supervisors, of the Highways, to superintend all public roads and highways, in the townships, for which they may be assigned supervisors or overseers; and keep them in proper repair, and fit for the use of travellers and passengers, by the labour and assistance of the inhabitants of the township, in which they may severally be supervisors. And in case of omission of this their duty, each defaulting supervisor of the highways, shall be liable, and subjected to a fine of ten Dollars, for each and every default; to be recovered with costs, for the use of the township, by any person who will prosecute for the same, for the purpose of aiding the inhabitants of such towns, to form causeways, and smaller bridges where it may be necessary to hire teams, for the drawing of timber therefor; which fine shall be inflicted by any Justice of the peace, to whom complaint is made.

And be it further enacted, That every male inhabitant, of sixteen years of age and upwards, on being duly warned, to work on the highways, by the supervisors in the township, to which such inhabitant may belong, shall repair to the place, and at the time, by the said supervisor appointed, with such tools and utensils, as may be ordered him, wherewith he is to labour; and there abide, and obey the direction of such supervisor, during the day, in opening, and repairing the highways

And this duty, every male as aforesaid, shall be subject to perform, so many days not exceeding ten, in each and every year, as may in the opinion of the supervisor be necessary for the opening and repairing the highways. provided always that only an equal number of days labour, shall be exacted from any such citizen, all such male inhabitants serving alike, either in person, or by procuring a good hand to labour in their stead, or by their team, to the acceptance of the supervisor: which labour shall be valued at fifty cents per day, and brought into the general estimate, and apportionment of county charges; in order that every persons taxable property, within this Territory, may be equally assessed, to answer and satisfy the demands within the respective Counties: and non resident proprietors, or claimants of lands, may, and shall be entitled to labour their due proportion upon the highways, by their agents, or representatives, they timely signifying such intention to the proper supervisors.

If any male inhabitant, upon receiving three days notice, by the proper supervisor of the highway, shall neglect, or refuse to attend at the time and place, which may be appointed as aforesaid, or shall waste the day in idleness and inattention to the duty assigned him; such delinquent shall forfeit and pay to the supervisor, who warned him to work, fifty cents, for the sole benefit of the said supervisor, for every such default, to be recovered with costs, by an action of debt, in any court where the same may be cognizable; and moreover, be further liable to work an equal number of days yearly on the highway, with the other male

Inhabitants of the townships, in the same manner as though no such default had been ma

And where the delinquent person shall happen to be a minor, apprentice, slave or servant, the father, mother, or guardian of such minor, or the master of such apprentice, slave or servant, as the case may be, so making default, shall become liable to the action, in the same manner as though they were principal defaulters.

And when in the opinion of the said Justices, bridges of large dimensions are necessary, and such as require special attention, and considerable expence; they are hereby authorized, to contract for the building and keeping in repair the same, with such persons as may be willing to undertake, upon terms most advantageous to the county: and the justices of the court of common pleas, with the grand juries, or a majority of them, shall be the sole judges of the place where any bridge shall be built, and maintained, over any creek or rivulet, within the respective counties, to which they belong. And all expences incurred in building, and keeping in repair such bridges, shall be paid from the county treasuries respectively, upon the warrant of the Justices of the court of common pleas, and out of any county monies not otherwise appropriated.

Territory, whenever such Newspapers shall be published, appointing the time and place for all the Creditors of the Person against whose Effects and Estate the Attachment is granted to appear then and there to discover, and make proof of their demands, and if after a full and careful examination, it shall appear that there is a just Debt due to any one Person from the said Defendant exceeding the Sum of twenty dollars, then, and in every such case, the said Justice of the peace shall no further proceed, but shall deliver and certify to the Clerk of the Court of common pleas for the same County the said Attachment, and all proceedings thereon had before him. Whereupon it shall and may be lawful for the Justices of said Court to grant and issue one Writ of Attachment only to the Person or Persons who obtained the said Attachment from the said Justice (if he demand the same) or if not, then to any other Creditor of the Defendant, to the Sheriff of the same County directed, requiring him to attach all the Goods Chattels, Rights and Credits, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments of the said Defendant within his Bailiwick. By virtue of which Writ, the said Sheriff shall together with the Residue of the said Defendant's real and personal Estate in the same County attach and take into his Custody all the Goods and Chattels of the said

Defendant (or the product of such part of them, as may be sold under the direction of this Law) then in the hands, and possession of the said Freeholders, and upon the return of the said Writ of Attachment by the said Sheriff, the Justices of the said Court of common Pleas, and all other persons notified under their authority, shall proceed thereon in like manner, and shall have the same Jurisdiction, and Powers for the discovering, selling, collecting, compelling payment of, receiving, and distributing the Estate, real and personal of the Defendant among his Creditors, as they might or could have had, if the said Writ of Attachment had, according to the Laws of this Territory, issued out of the same Court

3d, When any Attachment shall be granted by any Justice of the Peace, or any Writ of Attachment shall issue out of any inferior Court according to the directions of this Law, no second, or other Attachment, or Writ of Attachment, granted, or issued by the said Justice, or any other Justice within the same County, or by the Justices of the same inferior Court, against the real or personal Estate of the same Defendant, or the execution of them, or any of them shall bind or affect the Right, Title, Interest, or Property of, or in the real or personal Estate of the same Defendant, within the same County, or any part thereof, while the proceedings on the said first Attachment, or Writ of Attachment remain undetermined, any Law, Usage, or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding

4th When the said Justice of the Peace, shall accept of the return of an Attachment, from the Constable as above directed; if it shall appear to the same Justice that any Cattle or other Chattels necessary to be maintained at expence, or any perishable Goods have been attached by virtue of the same Attachment, it shall, and may be lawful for the same

Q. A Law Regulating Enclosures.

All corn-fields and grounds, kept for enclosures, shall be well enclo with fen[redacted]t least five feet high, of sufficient rails or logs and close at bottom; a at any rate not more than three inches from the ground: and whosoever, not having their grounds enclosed with such sufficient fence as aforesaid; shall hurt kill or do damage to any horse, mare, colt, cattle, sheep or hog of any other person by hunting, or driving them out of, or from the said grounds, shall be liable to mak good all damages, sustained thereby, to the owner of such creatures. But if any horse, mare, colt, cattle, sheep, [redacted] or hog, or any kind of cattle shall break into any mans enclosure, the fence being of the aforesaid height and sufficiency and by the view of two persons, for that purpose appointed, by the court of general quarter sessions of the peace, found and approved to be such; then the owner of such creature, shall be liable to make good all damages to the owner of the enclosure; for the first offence, single damages only, and ever after, double the Damages sustained. And all persons having any unruly horses, mares, colts, cattle, sheep, lambs or hogs, that are not to be kept off by such fences as aforesaid, are ordered and shall be obliged to take effectual care to restrain the same, from trespasing on their neighbours enclosures.

And for the better ascertaining, and regulating of partition fences, it is hereby directed, that where any neighbours shall improve lands adjacent to each other or where any person shall enclose any land adjoining to another's land, already fenced in, so that any part of the first person's fence becomes the partition fence between them; in both these cases, the charge of such division fence (so far as enc =sed on b[redacted]ides) shall be equally borne and maintained by both parties. To wh and other ends, in this law mentioned, each court of General quarter sessions of the peace, shall nominate, and is hereby required to nominate and appoint, so many honest and able men, as they shall think fit, for each county respectively; to view all such fences, about which any difference may happen or arise, and the aforesaid persons in each county respectively, shall be the sole Judges of the charge to be borne by the delinquent, or by both or either party, and of the sufficiency of all fences, whether partition fences or others. And where they Judge any fence to be insufficient, they shall give notice thereof to the owners or possessors: and if any one of the said owners or possessors, upon the request of the other, and due notice given by the said viewers, shall refuse to make or repair the said fence or fences, or to pay the moiety of the charge of any fence, before made (being a division fence) within ten Days after no= =tice given, then upon proof thereof, before two Justices of the peace of the respective county, it shall be lawful, for the said Justices, to order the person aggrieved and suffering thereby, to repair the said fence or fences; who shall be rembursed his cost and charges from the person so refusing to make good the said partition fence or fences; and the said costs and charges shall be levied upon the offender's goods and chattels, under warrant from the said Justice, by distress and sale thereof. the overplus, if any be, to be returned to the party offending.

provided, That nothing herein contained shall be intended to prevent or debar any person or persons, from enclosing his or their grounds, with sufficient walls or pallisadoes, or by dikes, hedges and ditches; all such walls and pallisadoes, to be height; at least, five feet from the ground; and all dikes to be, at least three feet in height from the bottom of the ditch, and planted or set with thorn or quickset; so that such enclosures shall fully answer and secure the several purposes meant to be answered and secured by this law.

provided also, That such walls and pallisadoes, and dikes, hedges and ditches, shall be subject to all provisions, inspection and restrictions respectively, to which by this law, any other enclosure or fence is made liable, according to the true intent and meaning hereof.

A Law in addition to the Laws, for the regulation of Slaves and Indians.

Whereas, the Laws prohibiting trade with Indians and slaves, under certain conditio therein prescribed, have proved inadequate to that purpose; and it appears that frauds are perpe trated, and much public injury sustained from the licence that slaves from time to time receive traffic in Cotton

It is enacted, that if any slave or slaves be countenanced or permitted by his, her or their Master, owner or overseer, in raising or vending said article, for the profit and advantage of suc slave or slaves; the Master, owner or overseer aforesaid, and the purchaser, each of them shall forfeit and pay to the use of the Territory, and the informer in equal moities, one hundred Dollars for the first offence, on conviction before any Court having cognizance thereof in this Territory: and for the second offence, the Master, owner, overseer or purch[illegible], shall be liable to double the aforesaid penalty, and the slave or slaves so offending, shall be publicly whipped, not exceeding fifty stripes.

And if any person or persons shall be convicted before proper authority, of countenancing or conniving in any way or manner whatsoever, at the keeping or owning of horses, by his, her or their slaves; such person or persons shall pay a fine of fifty Dollars, to be appropriated as the foregoing penalty. — And any Justice of the peace, Grand Juror, or other civil officer of this Territor who shall forbear to present, inform or act as officia[illegible] officer upon private knowledge of a violation this Law; such person, if a Magistrate or other officer in Commission, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, fined not exceeding two hundred Dollars by the Court before whom the offence is cogn =zable, and removed from office; and if a Grand Juror, he shall be subject to the pains and penalti of perjury prescribed by a statute of this Territory.

And in order that persons dealing with Indians as well as slaves, without the permission requir by a Law of this Territory, may be more easily convicted. If any [illegible]n or slave shall be seen going into any store, or other house; and such Indian or slave shall carry into such store or hou any article which may be supposed for sale, or any bottle, Jug or other thing in which liquor may be conveyed, or shall bring out of such house or store, any thing which may be supposed to have been purchased therein, and proof shall be made of the fact; the same shall be deemed sufficient to convict the storekeeper or housekeeper of a breach, and he shall incur the penalti of the Laws of this Territory, interdicting traffic with Indians and slaves without a permissi from the Master, owner or overseer or the Superintendent as the case may be.

be lawful [redacted] such Justice; and he is hereby empowered, and required, to issue forth his warrant, in the nature of a summons, capias, or attachment, as the case may requir Directed to the constable of the township, or district where the defendant dwells, or ca be found; commanding him to bring such defendant, or causing him to come with the plaintiff, before him, or the next Justice forthwith: and when such Justice hath heard the proofs, by the oaths, or affirmations, of one or more witnesses, and the allega tions of both parties, or such of them as will be present, he shall forthwith give judgment in the matter; which shall be final and conclusive, to both complainant and defendant, without further appeal. But the Justice who gives such judgment, shall keep fair entries of the names of the complainants and defendants, and the debt or sum contained in such judgment, with the day and year when the same was given and execution if required, shall be awarded by the Justice, against the body, or goods and effects of the defendant, or person refusing to comply with such judgment, di= =rected to the constable. If the defendant produce effects, sufficient to satisfy the sum contained in such execution, his body shall not be held any longer; but for want of such effects, the constable is hereby required, to take such defendant into the gaol of the proper county: and the sheriff or keeper of such gaol, is hereby required to= receive the person so taken in execution, and him safely keep, till the sum re with costs, be paid, or satisfaction made by goods or otherwise; which goods shall wit in three days after, be sold by public vendue, and the overplus, if any, after reasona charges deducted, returned to the owner.

No court shall have cognizance of any of the said debts or demands und eight dollars; nor shall the same be determined by any Justice, in any other way than this law directs; any law or usage to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

provided always, That nothing herein contained, shall extend to enable any of the said Justices, within the respective counties, to hear any debt for rents, or where the title of real estates comes in question.

All actions for debt or other demands for the value of eight Dollars and upward and not exceeding twenty Dollars, (except such actions as are herein after excepted) are hereby made cognizable before any Justice of the common pleas, or Justice of the peace in the county in which the defendant shall be, or reside: and the Justices are hereby respectively empowered and required, upon complaint to either of them, made for any such debt or demand, to issue a warrant, in the nature of a summons, or capias (as the case may require) directed to the constable of the township, or district, where the defendant dwells, or can be found; or to some other constable, near to him; com =manding such constable to bring such defendant, or cause him to appear, before the said Justice; at the time, and in the manner following; that is to say. In cases where such process, shall be in the nature of a capias, forthwith, after the service thereof; but where a summons shall be issued, then on some certain day therein exp-ed, not less than five, nor exceeding eight days, from the date of such process; and at the time appointed, for the hearing such cause; the said Justice, having hear and examined the parties, with their proofs and allegations, shall give Judgment thereupon, as the true merits and right of the cause shall appear to him; or at request of the parties, auditors or referees shall be named by them, and being ap=proved of by the Justice, shall proceed to hear and examine the proofs and allegation of the plaintiff and defendant: and, upon the return of such auditors, the said Justi shall give Judgment thereupon accordingly; with such costs only, in either case, as by law are allowed in debts under eight Dollars.

provided always, That the process against a freeholder, shall be by summons only and service thereof shall be made on the person, or a copy thereof, left at the house of the defendant, in the presence of one or more of his family, or neighbours, at least four days before the time appointed for a hearing. And in case the defendant does not ap=pear at the time appointed; then, on oath or affirmation, made by the constable, that the said summons was duly served in manner aforesaid, the Justice who granted the same summons, may either then, or on such future day, as he shall deem con=sistent with reason, and the nature of the case, to appoint (and not otherwise pro=ceed) to hear and determine such cause or causes, in the defendants absence, and give judgment, and award execution thereupon, as if the defendant had been personally present.

After judgment given, in any of the cases aforesaid, the Justice who pronounced the same, shall grant execution thereupon, directed to the constable aforesaid; co=manding him to levy the debt or damages, and costs, of the defendants goods and cha= who, by virtue thereof, shall, within the space of ten days next afterwards, expose the same to sale by public vendue, returning the overplus, if any be, to the defendant and for want of sufficient distress, to take the body of such defendant into custody, and him or her, to carry and convey to the common gaol, of the county; and the sheriff or keeper of such gaol, is hereby required to receive the person or persons, so taken in exe=cution, and him, her or them, safely keep, until the sum recovered with costs, be fully paid. And in default of such safe keeping, to be liable to answer the damage to the party grieved, in such manner as by law, is provided in case of escapes: but in case no effects belonging to the defendant, sufficient to pay the debt and costs can be found; it shall and may be lawful for the plaintiff to apply to the Justice who pronounced the judgment, for a transcript thereof; and on filing the same in the prothonotary's office, of the court of common pleas, in that county, in which the recovery shall be had; it shall and may be lawful for the plaintiff, to levy the sum recovered, with costs of suit on the lands and tenements of the defendant, either by fieri facias, venditioni exponas, or liberari facias, as the case may require, in like manner, as by law, is provided in other cases.

provided always, That no such execution shall be issued against any freeholder in less than the space of three months, next after the entry of such judgment, unless the plaintiff, or some body for him or her, shall on oath or affirmation, declare that he or she, hath good reason to believe, that the debt will, by such delay for that, at the end of the said term, or before it; he or she believes the defendant, will have sufficient assets in the county, on which the said debt may be levied: and if any judgment to be given as aforesaid, shall be against a person not a freeholder, such person shall have the execution against him or her respited, for the like term of three months, on his or her entering into recognizance to the plaintiff, with one sufficient security, in the nature of special bail, on condition, to deliver the body of the defendant, to the sheriff of the county; at, or any time before the expiration of the time so to be allowed; or that the money adjudged to be due, shall then be paid.

And in default of giving such security, shall be committed to the common gaol of the county, there to remain until the debt and costs shall be paid, or such defendant otherwise legally discharged.

Provided also, That where the plaintiff in any case, shall become nonsuit, or judgment shall pass against him, then the Justice is hereby required, to assess the defendant his reasonable costs, to be levied in manner aforesaid.

Provided also, That if any person or persons, shall conceive him, her, or themselves aggrieved, by any such Judgment, so to be given (cases determined on the return of auditors or referees as aforesaid only excepted) it shall and may be lawful, for such person or persons, at any time within the space of six days, next following the giving such Judgment, but not after, to appeal therefrom, to the court of common pleas, next to be holden for the county, in which such suit shall be commenced; he, she or they first entering into recognizance, with at least one sufficient security, at least in double the value of the debt, or damages sued for (and sufficient to answer all costs) to prosecute the said appeal with effect, and to abide the order of the said court; or in default thereof, to be sent by mittimus to the sheriff of the county, by him to be kept, until he, she or they, shall give such security or be otherwise legally discharged.

The said Justices shall cause fair entries to be made in books, by them to be provided, for that purpose; of the names of the plaintiff and defendant, in all such cases, as may come before them; with the debt and costs adjudged, and the time when the same Judgment was given. And upon any appeal made from any such judgment, the Justice who pronounced the same, shall send a transcript thereof, to the prothonotary of the court of common pleas, of the county, in which such appeal is made; on, or before the first day of the term, next following any such appeal; for which transcript, or any other, obtained by virtue of this law, the Justice shall be allowed in the costs to be taxed, eighteen cents and no more.

At the court to which any such appeal shall be made, the person so appealing shall cause an entry of his suit to be made, by the prothonotary of such court; and shall either have his appearance entered, or give bail to the action, as the nature of the case may require; or on neglect thereof, and application of the appellee to the court, for that end, the appellants default shall be recorded, the first judgment affirmed, with reasonable costs, and execution shall be issued out of the said court, against the defendant's body, goods or chattels as is usual in cases. And in case the defendant shall appeal or give bail as aforesaid, the plaintiff or defendant in the appeal, as the case may require, shall file his or her declaration, and the adverse party shall plead to issue, in such time as shall be directed by the court; so always that the cause be tried by a Jury of the country, in the usual manner; either at the court to which such appeal is made, or the next term farthest; unless the court on cause to them shewn, shall think fit to give the parties a further day: and as the verdict shall be rendered in any of the said causes, the court shall give Judgment thereupon, as the nature of the case may require, with costs of suit.

Provided always, That if the parties appellant, and appellee, or either of them shall neglect or refuse, to file his or her declaration, or to plead to issue, in such time as shall be directed by the court; a non suit, or Judgment by default, may be entered, for want thereof as usual.

Provided also, that the costs to be taxed in any such suit, to the several officers, and others concerned, for the services by them respectively to be done, shall be two third parts only of the costs now usually taken, in the said courts of common pleas.

Provided also, that none of the Justices, who, by virtue of this law, shall hear and determine, any of the causes aforesaid, out of court, shall afterwards sit on the hearing and determining the same cause, on an appeal made to any of the courts of common pleas aforesaid.

If any person or persons, whomsoever, shall commence, sue or prosecute, any suit or suits, for any debts or demands, made cognizable as aforesaid, in other manner than is directed by this law; and shall obtain a verdict or judgment therein for debt or damages, which without costs of suit, shall not ammount to more than eight dollars, (not having caused an oath or affirmation to be made, before the obtaining of the writ of summons or capias, and filed the same in the prothonotary's office, respectively; that he, she or they, so making oath or affirmation, do truly believe the debt due or damage sustained, exceeded the sum of eight dollars) he, she or they, so prosecuting, shall not recover any costs in such suit: any law, usage or custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

Provided also, That this law, nor anything herein contained, shall be deemed, construed, or understood to extend to actions of debt for rent, debt upon bonds, for performance of covenants, to actions of covenant, to actions of replevin, or upon any real contract; nor to actions of trespass on the case, for trover and conversion, or slander; nor to actions of trespass for assault and battery, or imprisonment; nor to such actions where the title of lands, shall any-wise come in question.

A Law to provide for the Inspection of Gins, Cotton presses, and cotton, intended for exportation from this Territory.

To promote the interests of this Territory; by establishing at foreign markets the good reputation of the staple of this country; there shall be recommended to the Governor by the Courts of Quarter Sessions for the several Counties; a sufficient number of suitable persons, to be appointed Inspectors of Cotton Gins, Cotton presses, and Cotton; who upon approbation of the Governor, shall be commissioned under the seal of the Territory. and whose special duty it shall be, to visit the Gins, and Cotton houses in their respective Districts, quarterly, in the same months in which the inferior Courts are holden.— And at all other times, when they may be thereunto required by the owners of new Gins, or such as having been injured, shall have undergone the necessary repairs: or whenever they may have reason to believe any fraud to the public is intended. And in all cases where the mechanism of the Gins, and presses is proper, and sufficient; and the cotton intended to be ginned, of good merchantable quality; they shall give certificates thereof to the owners, authorising them to continue Ginning, and packing merchantable Cotton, during the good order of their Gins, and no longer.

And if any person within this Territory, shall presume to gin for foreign market, without such certificate first had and obtained — or if any person whomsoever shall knowingly, and wilfully cause or permit, any cotton, but good and merchantable passing through his or any other Gin, to be put up in square bales, or after the manner usually practised for exportation, and contrary to the true intent and meaning of this Law; he shall, for each and every such offence, forfeit and pay twofold the value of an equal quantity of merchantable cotton, so packed, to be recovered in the Courts of Common Pleas: one moiety of which shall be to the use of the Territory, and the other moiety to the prosecutor suing to effect; and the cotton shall be publicly burned.— provided, that cotton of an inferior quality may be exported in round bags, comparatively put up; always bearing the words Inferior Cotton, thereupon in capital letters — the same being accompanied with a certificate from an inspector, solemnly made upon oath, before one of the Justices of the Quorum or Common Pleas, of the value thereof; comparative with the good and merchantable cotton of the Territory.

The owners of Gins shall cause to be marked in capital letters, upon each, and every bale of Merchantable Cotton intended for exportation M.T. with the initial letters of their Christian, and the whole of their Surnames; together with the number of pounds in each bale. — And if any person shall presume, with fraudulent intent, to inscribe upon any bale of Cotton, other than the marks of the Gin, where the same was Ginned, and packed; he shall upon conviction there=of, be punished as is provided for the commission of fraudulent Deeds, by the Statutes of this Territory.

Each and every inspector, shall upon receiving his commission, take the oath prescribed for all offices by the statutes of this Territory. — And as a compensation for his services, be entitled to receive for every Certificate granted, of the sufficiency of a Gin, and press, one Dollar; and for every day he shall be employed in inspecting the quality of Cotton (not exceeding two days at any one plantation) two Dollars per day; with an allowance of eight cents per mile, for every mile he shall travel, to, and from the place of Inspection; which compensation shall be made by the owners of Gins respectively.

A Law in addition to, and amendment of the Law for the permanent establishment of the Militia of the Mississippi Territory.

No officer or soldier directed to appear and muster by the Law for the permanent establishment of the Militia of the Mississippi Territory, shall be liable to be taken or arrested in any civil action or process whatever, on the day such person or persons is, or are directed to appear; or in any reasonable time, either in going to, continuing at, or returning from the place appointed to muster or appear; but every such arrest is hereby declared to be void. And no noncommissioned officer or private shall be deprived of the arms and accoutrements required by the Militia Law, by execution issuing on an action of debt, or any civil process whatsoever.

And every person required by the said Law to attend musters, and reviews; going to or returning from the same, shall be suffered to pass over any Ferry without delay, free from any charge whatsoever. And if any Ferry man shall demand pay, delay or refuse to put such persons over, he shall forfeit for every such offence, the sum of eight Dollars, one half to the complainant, and the other half to the Territory, to be recovered before a Justice of the peace.

And whereas it is represented that the company muster and field days, ordained by Law for the Militia of this Territory, are so frequent as to produce inconvenience and injury to the industrious yeomanry, and that a less number of parade days, with due attention of officers and privates might equally promote the intention of the Law. — It is hereby declared, that two field days only, shall be exacted yearly, in each and every County, and to be named by the Commandants of Legions with the approbation of the commander in chief. A Law to alter the times of holding the supreme Court in the County of Adams, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted, by the Governor and Judges, of the Missisippi Territory, that from and after the passing of this Law, the supreme Court of this Territory shall be held, in, and for the County of Adams twice in each year, and shall commence annually on the second Mondays of October and April, and may be continued by adjournments from day to day, so long as in the opinion of the Judges thereof the same may be necessary.

And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of one or more of the said Judges, to attend at the usual place of holding said Court in said County, on the second Monday of the present Month; and then and there to open said Court, in, and for the said County of Adams; and then and there to receive, hear and determine all, and all manner of Causes, suits or actions; as well Criminal or pleas of the Government, as Civil, that are, or may be by Law cognizable and determinable, in, before or by the said Court; and thereupon to give Judgment, and award Execution: And all Causes, suits and actions, as well Criminal as Civil that may now be depending in the said Court, shall stand continued to the Term of said Court to be held on the said second Monday of the present Month, in the same manner, and with the same effect as the same would have ~~stood~~ continued to the next succeeding Term if this Law had not been passed. Provided always, That this Law shall not operate or be construed, to work any discontinuance of any original Writs or other process that may have been Issued since the last Term of said Court, but the same shall be returned to the next April Term of the said Court, unless the said Court for sufficient cause shall otherwise order.

And for carrying into effect the provisions of this Law, it shall be lawful for a Writ or Writs of Venire facias, or other necessary process, to Issue Tested of the last Term of the said Court that hath been held, and returnable to the Term thereof next to be holden, as either of the said Judges may direct; which Writs or other process shall be executed in the usual manner, and shall be deemed good and effectual in Law — any Law to the contrary notwithstanding.

And be it further enacted, That the said Courts hereby directed to be next holden, shall be thereafter deemed the regular stated Term of said Court, and all process Issuing therefrom shall bear Test accordingly.

And be it further enacted, That in future the supreme Court of the Territory shall be held twice in each year in the County of Washington; the second Term thereof to commence on the first monday after the expiration of six months from the first Court That shall have been holden in the manner the Laws now in force direct.

And be it further enacted, That no suit shall be originally commenced in any of the ~~Supreme~~ Courts in this Territory for any Debt or Demand of less value than three hundred Dollars: And if any suit shall be commenced contrary to the true intent and meaning hereof, or if any person shall demand a greater sum than is due, on purpose to evade this act, in either case the plaintiff shall be nonsuited, and pay costs. — Provided always, That if the plaintiff, or any other person for him, will make an affidavit (to be filed in the Court) that the sum for which this suit shall be brought is really due, but that for want of proof, or that the time limited for the recovery of any article, bars a recovery, then, and in that case, such plaintiff shall have a verdict and Judgment for what appears to be legally proved, any thing herein to the contrary notwithstanding. And provided also, That nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to suits on Bonds, penal Bills, or any other action of debt grounded on a penalty, where the ballance due on such Bond or penal Bill, or other action of debt, is not of less value than the sums herein before mentioned to be limited for bringing suits in the said Courts.

A Law to alter, and amend a Law heretofore passed in this Territory, entitled "A Law fixing the Place where the Supreme Courts for this Territory shall be held, the number of Sessions and the time of holding them", and for other purposes

1 Be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this Law, the Supreme Courts of this Territory, shall cease to be held in the several Counties in the Manner heretofore directed by Law.

2 And Be it enacted, That the Supreme Court shall be held twice in each and every year, at the usual Place of Holding Courts in the County of Adams, and shall be called the Supreme Court of the Mississippi Territory; and shall have and exercise Jurisdiction over all Causes, matters and things, arising in any part of this Territory, which are, or have heretofore been by Law Cognizable, in any of the Supreme Courts heretofore established in this Territory.

3 And be it further enacted, That all records of any suits, causes, actions, and prosecutions, of what nature soever the same may be, either Criminal or Civil, that are now commenced or depending in any of the Supreme Courts heretofore established in the several Counties of this Territory, shall, as soon as may be after the passing of this Law, be transfered to, and entred in the Supreme Court hereby established, and there in be proceeded upon according to Law.

4 And be it further enacted, That the said Supreme Court, or any of the Proceedings therein Depending, shall not be Discontinued by reason of the Death of any of the Judges thereof, or by their not attending at any Term; but in such cases, all Pleas, Causes, matters and things therein Depending, shall stand Continued, and remain in the same condition in which they shall then be, to the next succeeding Term.

5 And, the better to provide for the administration of Justice in the said Court, Be it enacted, That the Justices of the Court of quarter Sessions of the County of Adams, at each and every of their Sessions which shall be held next before any Term of the said Supreme Court hereafter to be holden, shall select and appoint thirty two -- good and respectable Men, Freeholders of their County, and shall thereupon Direct their Clerk to issue a Writ of Venire facias, directed to the Sheriff of their County, to summon the said Freeholders to appear, and serve as Jurors at the next succeeding Term of the Supreme Court; and the Justices of the Court of quarter Sessions for the County of Pickering, shall in like Manner cause to be Summoned Twenty six ---- good and Lawful men Freeholders of their County, to serve as Jurors as aforesaid; and the said Freeholders shall be bound to obey such Summons under the Penalty prescribed by Law in similar Cases.

6 And be it further enacted, That a number of the said freeholders not less than thirteen, nor more than twenty three, shall be drawn for by lot, who shall serve as the Grand Jury, and the remainder of the said freeholders, shall be the trawers or petit jurors to serve during such Term of said Court; and each Juror so attending and serving as aforesaid, shall be allowed, and receive one Dollar for each day he shall serve; and the like sum for every twenty five miles he shall trave going to, and returning from said Court, to be paid out of the Treasury of the County to which he shall belong; and such service shall be ascertained by the Juror on oath, before the Clerk of said Supreme Court, who shall enter the same of record, and thereupon shall deliver to such Juror a Ticket under his hand, which shall be a good and sufficient Warrant for the County Treasurer, to pay such Juror the sum of money appearing to be due by such Ticket.

7 And be it further enacted, That when any original Process shall be issued from any Court of Record in this Territory, whereby any Person shall be called upon, or arrested to answer, in any Court of Justice in said Territory; to a non-resident thereof, Bond for Prosecution, with sufficient surety, shall be taken, and filed in the Clerks office previous to the issuing such Process, payable to the Defendant, in the penal sum of two hundred and fifty Dollars, conditioned that the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, shall well and truly prosecute the suit thereon with effect, or in case he or they shall fail therein, that he or they shall well and truly pay and satisfy all Costs into which he or they shall be condemned in said suit; and in default thereof the Attorney who appears in the suit for such non-resident, shall be answerable for the payment of such Costs. And in every case where it shall appear reasonable to the Court, into which any such Process may be returnable, they are hereby empowered, on motion of the Defendant, to order the Plaintiff to give bond as aforesaid, on penalty of having such action dismissed at the Plaintiffs proper Costs.

8 And be it further enacted, That it shall be the Duty of the Clerks or other officers, issuing any Process, either original or Judicial, to mark thereon the day of issuing the same, and the Sheriff or other officer, receiving the same to execute, shall likewise mark thereon the day on which he shall have received it: And every person failing therein shall forfeit and pay the sum of fifty - - - Dollars to any person who shall sue for the same.

9 And be it further enacted, That all writs and other Process, original or Judicial (except subpoenas for witnesses) shall be made returnable on the first day of the Term succeeding the issuing thereof; and if made returnable on any other Day, shall be adjudged void on the plea of the Defendant. And if the Sheriff or other officer, shall neglect to return such writ or process, on the first day of the Term, he shall be liable as is usual on the expiration of a rule for the return of the same. Provided, that nothing herein shall be construed to invalidate any process, warrant, or Precept to be issued by any Judge or Justice of said Court, or other officer thereto authorized by Law, on any Criminal Prosecution, on behalf of the Government; but that the same may be issued at any time, and made returnable to any day of the Term. And all process shall be directed to the Sheriff or other officer of the proper County and be by them executed.

10 And be it further enacted, That in all actions founded on any specialty, Bill, or note in writing, signed by the Defendant, or on the Judgment of any Court, foreign or Domestic, and the nature of such action endorsed on the Writ, attested by the Clerk, or Attorney for the Plaintiff, setting forth the Dates of such Specialties, bills, notes, or Judgments, and the sum or sums which appear thereby secured and unpaid, the Defendant or Defendants shall be held to bail of course, for the sum or sums endorsed. — And in all actions of account, Covenant broken, and actions founded on verbal Contracts, and assumpsits in Law, in which the Plaintiff or other credible person, can ascertain the sum or sums due, or Damages sustained; and either of them make affidavit thereof (to the best of his or her Knowledge and belief) and the same be filed in the Clerks office, the Clerk shall endorse on the Writ the sum so sworn to, and the Defendant or Defendants shall be held to bail for the sum or sums so endorsed. — And, in actions sounding merely in Damages where the same cannot be ascertained as aforesaid, the Defendant or Defendants shall not be held to bail, except by order of the Court, or some one of the Judges or Justices thereof, upon sufficient cause shewn by affidavit, and such order and the sum for which bail is required, be endorsed on the Writ by the Court, Judge or Justice. — Provided that Executors, and Administrators, when sued in such Capacity, and Persons sued on Penal Statutes as do not expressly require bail, shall not be held to bail in such suits. — And every Person unlawfully held to bail, may be discharged therefrom on motion to the Court into which the Writ is made Returnable, and filing Common bail. And in every action wherein bail is not required, the Process may be by Capias ad Respondendum, and it shall be endorsed thereon by the Clerk, or Plaintiffs attorney, that "No bail is required" to which an appearance may be effected by filing Common bail. And when any Writ shall issue from any of the said Courts, whereon bail is required, the Sheriff or other officer (t Whichever the same may be directed) shall take a bail Bond, with sufficient surety or sureties, in a Penalty of Double the sum for which bail is required, b the indorsement on such writ; which said Bond the Sheriff, or other Officer, sha return with such writ, and in Case the Sheriff or other officer, shall neglect to ta such Bond, or the bail returned be held insufficient, on exception taken, and a other officer, (having due notice of taking such exception) shall in either Case Deemed and stand as Special bail, and the Plaintiff may proceed to Judgme against such Sheriff or other officer, as in other Cases against Special bail.

11 And be it further enacted, That all bail bonds returned to any of the said Courts, shall be assigned by the Sheriff or other officer returning the same, by indorsement thereon in the following form, to wit— I A.B. sh (or Coroner as the Case may be) of the County of Do hereby assign th within obligation and condition to C. D. his Executors and Administrators, to be sued for according to the Statute in such case made adopted and provi In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this day of in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and any Sheriff or other officer failing to make such assignment, shall be deemed and held as Special bail in the same manner as if no bail had been taken.

12 And where any Sheriff shall return that he hath taken the body of any Defendant, and committed him to the Prison of his County (which is hereby declared to be the proper prison for such Commitment) the Plaintiff may enter the Defendants appearance, and he shall be at liberty to plead a if such appearance had been entered by himself; and the Plaintiff may proce to Judgment as in other Cases.— Nevertheless the Defendant shall not be deli =ed out of Custody, but by putting in bail, or rule of Court, or Special ord of a Judge of the Supreme Court.

13 All bail taken according to the directions of this act, shall be deemed, held and taken as Special bail, and as such liable to the recovery of the Plaintiffs but the Plaintiff shall not take out Execution against such bail, until Execution hath been first returned that the Defendant is not to be found in his proper County and until a Scire facias hath been made known to the bail, which Scire facias shall not issue until such Execution shall have been so returned; and after the return of such Execution against the principal, and Scire facias against the bail, Execution may issue against the principal and his securities, or any of them, or any of their Estates, unless the bail shall surrender the principal, or shall appear and plead upon the return thereof.

14 And be it further enacted, That the bail shall have liberty at any time before final Judgment obtained against them, to surrender to the Court from whence the Process issued, or to the Sheriff returning such process during the ~~sitting~~ of the Court, or to the Sheriff during the recess of the Court, the Principal in discharge of themselves, and such bail shall at any time before such Judgment had, have full Power and authority to arrest the body of the principal, and secure him until they shall have an opportunity to surrender him to the Sheriff who made the arrest, or to the Court to which the process was returnable; and such Sheriff is hereby required to receive such surrender, and hold the body of the Defendant in custody, as if no bail had been given.

15 And be it further enacted, that when any scire facias, shall by the proper office be returned to have been made known to the bail, and they in consequence thereof shall appear, they shall be obliged to ~~plead~~, and the issue shall be tried the same Term to which the process shall be returned, unless sufficient cause be shewn to the court to the contrary; but the bail shall not be admitted to plead, non est factum, unless they first file an affidavit of the truth of their plea. Provided nevertheless, that if any Sheriff shall return on any scire facias to him directed, that the principal is imprisoned by virtue of any process, civil or criminal, the court to which such scire facias is returnable, shall on motion of the plaintiff or bail, order and direct that such principal be retained where he shall be a prisoner, until the plaintiffs Judgment and costs be satisfied, or he or she otherwise discharged by due course of Law: A copy of which order being served on the Keeper of such prison, before such prisoners release shall be sufficient authority for him to retain such prisoner, until such order be complied with and shall be deemed a surrender of the principal and a Discharge of the bail.

16 And for the better understanding what process shall issue when the Sheriff shall return that the Defendant is not to be found within his County, Be it enacted, That when the Sheriff shall make such return in any civil Action, the plaintiff may at his election, sue out an attachment against the Estate of such Defendant, or an alias or pluries Capias, until he be arrested, returnable in the same manner as original process; and if the Sheriff shall return any goods by him attached, and the Defendant shall fail to appear, and plead within the time herein directed, the plaintiff shall be entitled, if in an Action of Debt, to final Judgment; and if in an action on the case, to an Interlocutory Judgment, and in consequence thereof may execute a Writ of Enquiry the next succeeding Term; and the Goods so attached if not replevied or sold according to the Rules hereinafter Pre=scribed, for Goods taken on original attachments, shall remain in the custody of the Sheriff until final Judgment, and then be disposed of in the same manner as Goods taken in Execution on a Writ of fieri facias; and if the Judgment shall not be satisfied by the Goods attached, the Plaintiff may have Execution for the residue.

17 And be it further enacted, That in case any Plaintiff shall obtain Judgment final at the first Term to which the Process shall be returnable on an action of Debt; it shall be lawful for him to Execute his Writ of Enquiry, as to the value of any foreign Currency, or money for which the suit may be brought, at the same Term in which such Judgment shall be entered or obtained.

18 And be it further enacted, That upon any Complaint being made, on oath, to any of the Judges of the said Courts, or to any Justice of any of the Courts of Common Pleas, by any person or persons, his, her or their Attorney, agent, or factor, that any person or persons is removed, or is removing him or herself out of the County privately, or so absconds or conceals him or herself, that the Ordinary Process of Law cannot be served on such Debtor; and if such Plaintiff, his, her or their Attorney, Agent or Factor further Swears to the amount of his, her, or their Debt, or Demand to the best of his her or their knowledge and belief, it shall be lawful for the Justice, and he is hereby empowered and required to grant an attachment against the Estate of such Debtor, wherever the same may be found, or in the hands of any person or persons indebted to, or having any of the Effects of the Defendant, or so much thereof as shall be of Value sufficient to satisfy the Debt or Demand and Costs of such Complaint; which Attachment shall be returned to the Court where the suit shall be cognizable, and shall be deemed the leading Process in such Action, and the same proceedings shall be had thereon as on Judicial Attachments: Provided always, That such Justice before granting such attachment, shall take bond and security of the party for whom the same shall be issued, his, her or their Attorney, Agent or Factor, payable to the Defendant in Double the sum for which the Complaint shall be made, Conditioned for satisfying all Costs which shall be awarded to such Defendant, in case the Plaintiff shall be cast in the suit, and also all Damages which shall be recovered against the Plaintiff in any suit or suits which may be brought against him for wrongfully suing out such Attachment: Which bond, together with the affidavit of the party Complaining, subscribed with his proper name, shall be returned by the Justice taking the same to the Court to which the Attachment is returnable; and every Attachment without Bond and affidavit taken, and returned as aforesaid, shall be abated on the plea of the Defendant.

19 And for the ease and convenience of Creditors and Others, who may be Injured as aforesaid, and to remove Doubts with respect to the authority of the Justices of the Courts of Common Pleas in issuing Attachments; Be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Justice of the Courts of Common Pleas, upon Complaint made to him by any person or persons as aforesaid, to issue Attachments under the rules and regulations before mentioned, and make the same returnable to any of the said Courts where the same is Cognizable; any Law, usage, or Custom to the Contrary notwithstanding.

20 And be it further enacted, That when any person who shall not be an Inhabitant of this Territory, so that he cannot personally be served with Process, shall be Indebted to any person a resident of this Territory, and hath any Estate within the same; any of the said Justices may grant an Attachment against the Estate of such Foreign person, under the rules, restrictions, and regulations before mentioned, and the same proceedings may be had thereon.

21 And be it further enacted, That when any Goods, or other Estate, shall be attached by virtue of any Attachment, whether Judicial or original, it shall and may be lawful for the Defendant or Defendants, his, her, or their Attorney, Agent, or Factor, to replevy the same, by giving Bond with sufficient security to the Sheriff or other officer, serving such Attachment; which said Bond the Sheriff or other officer, is hereby empowered and required to take, to appear at the Court to which such Attachment is returnable, and to abide by, perform, and satisfy the order or Judgment of such Court; and when the Estate attached shall by two Justices of the Court of Common Pleas, to be summoned by the Sheriff for that purpose, be certified on Oath to be perishable, and the person or persons to whom it belongs, his, her, or their Attorney, Agent, or Factor, shall not within sixty Days after the serving of such Attachment replevy the same; then such Estate shall be sold at public Vendue by the Sheriff, or other Officer, he having first advertised such sale at the Court house and other public places in his County, at least ten Days before the sale; and the money arising by such sale shall be liable to the Judgment obtained upon such Attachment, and Deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the Court to which the process shall be returnable, there to await the event of such Judgment; and where the Sheriff or other Officer shall serve an attachment in the hands of any person or persons supposed to be indebted to, or supposed to have any of the Effects of the party absconding or residing out of this Territory, he shall at the same time summon such person or persons as a Garnishee or Garnishees, in writing, to appear at the Court to which the Attachment shall be returnable, within the first four Days of such Term thereof, there to answer upon Oath, what he, or she is Indebted to the Defendant, and what Effects of the Defendant he or she hath in his or her hands, and how at the time of serving such Attachment, and what effects, or Debts of the Defendant there are in the hands of any other; and what person, to his or her Knowledge and belief; and where any Attachment shall be served in the hands of any Garnishee, in manner aforesaid, it shall be lawful upon his or her appearance and Examination, to enter up Judgment and award Execution against any such Garnishee, for all sums of money due to the Defendant, from him or her, and for all Effects and Estate of any kind belonging to the Defendant, in his or her Possession or Custody, for the use of the Plaintiff, or so much thereof as shall be sufficient to satisfy the Debt and Costs, and all Charges incident on levying the same; and all Goods and Effects whatsoever in the hands of any Garnishee or Garnishees belonging to any Defendant, shall be liable to satisfy the Plaintiff's Judgment, and shall be delivered to the Sheriff, or other Officer serving the Attachment: And where any Garnishee shall be returned by the Sheriff, or other Officer summoned in manner aforesaid, and shall fail to appear and discover on Oath, as by this Act is directed, it shall be Lawful for the Court, after solemnly calling the Garnishee, and such Court is hereby authorised and required, to enter a conditional Judgment against the Garnishee, and upon such Judgment so entered, a scire facias shall issue against such Garnishee, returnable the next Term, to shew cause, if any he hath, why final Judgment should not be entered against him; and upon such scire facias being duly executed and returned, if such Garnishee shall fail to appear at the next Term, and discover on Oath, in manner aforesaid, the Court shall confirm such Judgment, and award Execution for the Plaintiff's whole Judgment and Costs; and if upon the examination of any Garnishee, it shall appear to the Court, that there is any of the Defendant's Estate in the hands of any Person or Persons who have not been summoned, such Court shall, upon motion of the Plaintiff, grant a Judicial attachment, to be levied in the hands of such Person or Persons, having any of the Estate of the Defendant in his, her or their Custody or Possession, who shall appear and answer, and be liable as other Garnishees.

22 And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Person against whose Estate any Attachment hath issued as aforesaid, his, her, or their Attorney, Agent, or Factor, at any time before final Judgment entered, or writ of Enquiry executed, upon giving special bail, to replevy the Estate so attached, and plead to Issue so that the Plaintiff is not thereby Delayed of his Suit. Provided always, That no Judicial Process shall be issued against the Estate of any Person residing without the limits of this Territory, unless such Process is grounded on an Original Attachment, or unless the leading Process in the suit has been executed on the Person of the Defendant when within the Territory.

23 And, to Prevent Errors in Issuing Attachments, and taking Bonds thereupon, Be it enacted, That the Attachment shall be in the following Form, that is to say.

Miss is ippi Territory

Provided nevertheless, That no Attachment shall be abated for want of form, if the essential matters expressed in the foregoing Precedent be set forth in the Attachment.

24 And be it further enacted, That in all suits Commenced, or Prosecuted by Attachment against the Estate of persons residing out of the Territory; the Court to which the same shall be brought, shall stay all Proceedings in such suits for so long a time as they may think necessary, not exceeding one year from the time of the return of such Process, and where it can be conveniently done, notice shall issue from the Court to the Defendant; and if the Defendant appear, put in bail, and plead within the time limited for his appearance, in such case his Estate shall be liberated, and the Garnishee discharged; and it shall be lawful for the Jury to give in damages legal Interest upon the Plaintiffs recovery. during the time of such extraordinary continuance even in cases where Interest is not usually allowed in Courts.

25 And be it further enacted, That all the Statutes of England and Great Britain for amendment of the law, commonly called the Statutes of Jeofails, which are received and enforced in the State of North Carolina, as the Laws of the said State, be, and the same are hereby Adopted and Declared to be in force in this Territory.

26 And be it further enacted, That for taking the Testimony of witnesses in the causes which may be depending in the Supreme, and Courts of Common Pleas, the following Rules are to be observed and put in practice, To wit — In all suits where witnesses are to appear at any of the said Courts, the Clerk at the request of the Party, shall issue a Subpoena Directed to the Sheriff, or other Officer, of the County where such witness or witnesses are said to reside, mentioning the time and Place for his, her or their appearance the names of the parties to the suit wherein the Testimony is to be given, and the party at whose instance such witness or witnesses is, or are summoned. — Every subpoena made returnable immediately, shall be issued only in Term time, and shall be personally served on the witness or witnesses therein named. — A copy of every subpoena issued by the Clerks in the vacation, in case the witness or witnesses therein named is, or are not to be found, may be left at their usual places of residence; and such copy, certified by the Sheriff or other officer, left as aforesaid, shall be deemed a legal Summons, and the person or persons ~~therein~~ named, shall be bound to appear in the same manner as if personally summoned.

27 And be it further enacted, That every witness being summoned to appear at any of the said courts, in manner as herein before Directed, shall appear accordingly, and continue to attend from Term to Term until Discharged by the Court, or the party at whose instance such witness shall be summoned; and in default thereof shall forfeit and pay to the party at whose instance the subpoena Issued, the sum of one hundred Dollars, and shall be further liable to the action of such party for the full damages which may be sustained for want of such witness Testimony, who shall recover the same by scire facias with costs. — Provided always, That if it shall so happen that the suit depending, shall in the vacation be accommodated and settled between the parties, and the party at whose instance such witness was summoned shall neglect or omit to discharge him, or her from further attendance, and he, or she, for want of such discharge, should attend at the next Term, then, and in that case, the witness, upon Oath made of the facts, shall be entitled to a Ticket from the Clerk in the same manner as other Witnesses, and shall recover from the party at whose instance he was summoned, the same allowance which by this Act is given to witnesses for their attendance at the said Court with costs. — Provided also, that if any witness shall hereafter swear falsely, in order to obtain a Ticket, he shall upon conviction be adjudged guilty of perjury, and suffer as in cases of Corrupt and wilful perjury. And Provided further, That if sufficient cause be shewn by the Person so summoned, and failing to appear, of his, or her incapacity to attend at the time and place mentioned in the subpoena, then no forfeiture or penalty shall be incurred by such failure; but if upon notice given by the Court, sufficient cause be not shewn at the next succeeding Term after such failure, it shall, and may be lawful for such Court, on motion, to grant Judgment, and award Execution for the forfeiture before mentioned, against the person so summoned and failing to appear as afore-

28 And be it further enacted, That when any person who may be a Witness in any Cause in any of the said Courts, shall reside out of this Territory, or shall by reason of age, or bodily infirmity, or any other Cause, be incapable of attending to give his Testimony in Court, oath thereof being made, or the truth of the matter otherwise appearing, the Judge or Judges of the Court wherein such suit is depending, shall, and may by Commission empower such, and so many persons as may be thought necessary, to take and receive the Deposition of such Witness, which being duly taken and returned as hereinafter directed, shall be received as legal Testimony. — PROVIDED always, That the party praying such commission, shall give such notice to the adverse party of the time and place, when and where such Commission is to be Executed, as the Court shall think proper, and the adverse Party shall have power to Cross-examine any witness whose Deposition shall be so taken; and all Depositions otherwise taken than as in this act is Directed, unless by the Consent of Parties, shall be void to all Intents and purposes.

29 And be it further enacted, That if any person who may be a Witness in any Cause Depending in any of the said Courts, shall be under a necessity of leaving this Territory, before such Cause is to be tried, or even before such Cause shall be at Issue, upon Oath thereof being made before any of the Justices of the said Courts, such Justice is hereby empowered to order the Clerk of the Court, where such Cause is Depending, to Issue a Commission to one or more persons to take the Deposition of such Witness, notice being first given to the adverse party of the time and place when, and where such Deposition is to be taken, at least two days previous to the time of executing such Commission; which Deposition when returned, taken in manner aforesaid, shall be received as legal Evidence. PROVIDED, The people called Quakers shall have liberty of giving their Testimony by way of solemn affirmation, in all Causes whatsoever, criminal as well as civil. And PROVIDED also, That in any Cause depending as aforesaid, either party wishing to improve the Testimony of Witnesses absent from the Territory, may take the same by interrogatories, the party making Oath before any one of the Justices of the said Courts, of the absence of such Witness, and that he believes his Testimony material, such Justice may order the Clerk of the Court in which the Cause is depending, to Issue a Commission as aforesaid, Directing the Commissioners to call the Witness or Witnesses before them at a time and place by them appointed; but the party applying for such Dedimus shall file his interrogatories in the office, and serve the opposite party with a Copy thereof with notice of the Day on which such Dedimus will issue, at least Ten Days before the same shall issue, in which time the opposite party may file his Cross-interrogatories. And the interrogatories and Cross-interrogatories (if any there be) shall accompany such Dedimus: And if any Deposition taken by interrogatories shall contain any Testimony but the answers to such interrogatories such surplusage shall not be read in evidence; and all Depositions shall be considered as taken de bene esse.

30 And be it further enacted, That every witness being summoned to appear in any of the said Courts on a Criminal Prosecution, or Pleas of the Territory, shall appear accordingly, and continue to attend from Day to Day until discharged by the Court, the Attorney for the Territory, or the party at whose instance he shall be summoned; and in default thereof shall forfeit and pay the sum of one hundred Dollars, for the use of the Territory, unless upon notice Issued and made known, sufficient cause be shewn for such failure at the next succeeding Term.

31 And be it further enacted, That during the attendance of any person summoned to attend as a witness in any Court whatsoever, and during the time that such person is going to, and returning from the place of such attendance, allowing one Day for every ~~twenty~~ five Miles, such witness has to travel to, and returning from his place of residence, no Sheriff or other Officer shall serve, or execute on any person so attending, going to, or returning from such Court, any Writ or Process, Warrant, Order, Judgment, or Decree, in any Cause (Summons for Witnesses excepted) and if any such shall be executed, the same shall be, and is hereby declared null and void.

32 And be it further enacted, That for every mile any witness shall travel, either going to, or coming from the Court to which such witness shall be summoned to appear, there shall be paid to him, by the party at whose instance the subpoena shall have issued four - - cents per mile, together with the necessary ferriages, and one Dollar per Day for every Day he shall attend, until he shall have given Testimony, or shall be discharged. Provided, that in any bill of costs there shall not be allowed the Charge of more than two Witnesses to any particular matter of fact 33 And be it further enacted, That the Clerks of the said Courts, are hereby empowered and directed to take probate of all Evidence Tickets, upon oath, and Certify the same.

34 And be it further enacted, That the supreme Court of this Territory, or any one of the Judges thereof, during the Vacation of the same, shall have Power and authority to grant writs of Error, for correcting the Errors of any Inferior Court, and the Party praying such writ, before the same shall issue, shall assign Error, and give bond and security to the satisfaction of the Court, or Judge, to abide by, Perform, and fulfil the Judgment which shall be given thereon by such Court; and if upon argument of any Writ of Error, or Trial of any Appeal from an Inferior Court, the Judgment or Decree of the Inferior Court shall be reversed, the supreme Court shall grant Judgment, or make such Decree thereupon, as should have been made up, or entered in such Inferior Court; and shall and may issue Execution thereupon, without granting a Writ of Procedendo; and to Prevent the obtaining of writs of Error by surprise, the Party praying such writ in a Civil Cause, shall give notice in writing to the adverse Party, at least Ten Days before Motion, of his intention to move for such Writ, and no such writ shall be granted without Affidavit of such notice.

35th And be it further enacted, That every Justice of the Inferior Courts shall have Power, and they are hereby authorised and required, upon any complaint being made by any Person or Persons, for any Debt or Damage, matter or thing, cognizable in the Courts of Common Pleas and Quarter Sessions of this Territory, to grant an original attachment against the Estate of any Person absconding or concealing himself, or removing out of the County Privately, returnable to the Court of such County, observing therein the rules and restrictions Directed for granting original Attachments in the supreme Courts; and all Sheriffs and Coroners, shall execute and return the same, and observe the Rules and Directions appointed to be Observed in executing Attachments returnable to the Supreme Courts, and the like Judgment, Recovery, Remedy, Relief, and Proceedings shall be had thereupon, as in the like cases are grantable in the said supreme Courts.

36 And be it further enacted, That where any Judgment, sentence, or Decree shall be had, or obtained in any Court of Common Pleas or Quarter Sessions, for any Debt, Damages, fine or Amerciament, and the Person against whom such Judgment, sentence, or Decree shall be had or obtained, shall remove him or herself and Effects, or shall reside out of the limits of the Jurisdiction of such Court, it shall be lawful for the Clerk of the Court where such Judgment shall be given or Decree made, at the request of the Party in whose favour such Judgment, Sentence or Decree shall be had or obtained, to Issue Execution to any County of this Territory, where the Defen=dant or his goods may be found; and the Sheriff or other Officer to whom the same may be Directed, is hereby empowered and required, to execute the same, and make return thereof, in the same manner as is Directed for the returns of process Issuing from the Supreme Courts.

37 And be it further enacted, That the same Rules, Method, and Proceedings shall be had, kept and observed, by the said Courts of Common Pleas, and Quarter Sessions, and the Officers thereof, in granting, Issuing, Executing, and returning Process, and awarding Judgment or Judicial Attachments, and the like Remedy, Recovery, and Relief, against the Sheriffs and Bail; as in like Cases are provided by Law in Suits depending, or to be Commenced in the ~~same~~ Supreme Courts of Law.

38 And be it further enacted, That if any Sheriff or other Officer hath made, or shall make any return upon any writ of Fieri Facias, or Venditioni Exponas, that he hath levied the Debt, Damages and Costs, or Fees, as in such Writs required, or any part thereof, and hath not, or shall not pay the same into the Proper Office, or to the Party to whom the same is payable, or his Attorney, at the return of such Writ, or hath or shall return upon any writ of Capias ad Satisfaciendum, that he hath taken the body or bodies of any Defendant or Defendants, and hath the same ready to satisfy the Money or other matter in such Writ men=tioned, and shall actually have received the Money or other Matter, from the Defendant or Defendants, or any part thereof, or suffered him, her or them, to Escape with consent of such Sheriff or Officer, and hath not, or shall not pay the same into the proper office, or to the Party to whom the same is payable, or his Attorney; that then and in either of the said Cases, it shall and may be lawful for the Creditor, at whose suit of Fieri Facias, Venditioni Exponas, or Capias ad satisfaciendum, hath or shall Issue, upon motion made in the Court from whence such Writ Issued, or in the Supreme Court, to demand Judgment against such Sheriff or other Officer, for the Money or other matter mentioned in such Writ; and such Court is hereby authorised and required, to give Judgment accordingly for the same, with Costs, and to award Execution against the Goods and Chattels, Lands and Tenements of such Sheriff, Provided such Sheriff have five days previous notice of such Motion; and where it shall so happen that the Time of any Person's Sheriffalty shall be expired, or he shall be removed from office before such Motion made by the Creditor or Creditors, the same Remedy, Proceedings and Relief, shall and may be had against him, as if such Person was actually in office; any thing herein to the Contrary notwithstanding.

39 And for Prevention of vexation by Dilatory Pleas, It is Hereby enacted, That no Plea in abatement shall be received in any Action or Suit in any Court in this Territory, unless the truth thereof be sufficiently shewn by affidavit or otherwise; and in all actions where the Declaration shall plainly set forth sufficient matter of Substance for the Court to proceed upon the merits of the Cause, the Suit shall not abate for want of Form in the Proceedings; and when any Plea shall be pleaded in any Action, and upon argument thereof the same shall be adjudged insufficient to abate such Action, the Plaintiff shall recover against the Defendant full costs to the time of overruling such Plea, including the Costs of Court.

40 And for granting appeals from the Courts of Common Pleas, and Quarter Sessions to the Supreme Courts, Be it enacted, That when any Person or Persons, either Plaintiff or Defendant, shall be Dissatisfied with the Sentence, Judgment or Decree, of any of the Inferior Courts, he may pray an appeal from such Sentence, Judgment, or Decree to the Supreme Court; but before obtaining the same, shall enter into Bond, with two sufficient securities, for Prosecuting the same with Effect, and for performing the Judgment, Sentence and Decree, which the Supreme Court shall pass or make thereon, in case such appellant shall have the Cause decided against him.

41 And for the Prosecuting appeals, Be it enacted, That when any Person shall have appealed to a Supreme Court, in manner above Directed; a Transcript of the record of the Suit on which the appeal shall be made, shall be delivered to the Clerk of the Supreme Court, at least fifteen days before the sitting of the Term, and shall by him be filed the same day on which he receives the same; and if the Trial of the Inferior Court was of an Issue to the Country, a Trial de novo, shall be had; And if such Transcript of the record is not filed within the Time aforesaid, or if the appellant shall fail to appear, or to Prosecute his appeal, then the Judgment, Sentence or Decree of the Inferior Court shall be affirmed, and the appellant shall pay Double Costs in the Supreme Court.

42 And for the prosecuting Writs of Error, Be it enacted, That the following method of Practice shall be Observed, that is to say, A Transcript of the Records and proceedings in the Inferior Court, in the suit in which any Writ of Error shall be granted, or allowed, shall be Transmitted and Delivered to the Clerk of the Supreme Court at least fifteen days before the Sitting of the Term; and in case the plaintiff in Error shall neglect to file such writ, and assign Error as aforesaid, or shall fail to appear or to prosecute the same, that the Judgment of the Inferior Court shall be affirmed, and he shall be adjudged to pay Double Costs in the Supreme Court. Provided always, That if it shall so happen that there shall not be Thirty Days between the last Day of the Term or Hearing in the Inferior Court, and the next Term of the Supreme Court to which such appeal shall be made, or Writ of Error allowed; then such Appeal or Writ of Error shall be continued, and a Transcript of the Records and proceedings shall be Transmitted and filed in like manner in the Clerks office of the Supreme Court the Term succeeding that which shall Immediately follow such Inferior Court Term, in which such Trial and hearing shall be had as aforesaid.

43 And be it further enacted, That in every Court of Common Pleas and Quarter Sessions within this Territory, when any appeal shall be granted, or Writ of Error allowed, the Clerk of such Court shall immediately make up a full and perfect record of all the proceedings in such Cause, and shall within Ten Days after final adjournment of the Term in which the Cause shall be heard, give an attested Copy of such record with a Taxation of all Costs accrued to the appellant, or plaintiff in Error, if required; and shall endorse on such Copy the Day or Days on which the same may have been Demanded, and the Day on which it shall be delivered, and sign his name as Clerk thereto; and if by reason of the Delay of any Clerk, any Transcript shall not be filed in time, or that the record is so Erroneously, or incorrectly made up, that the Supreme Court cannot proceed thereon, such Clerk in any of the said Cases, shall upon Trial, be adjudged guilty of Misbehaviour in office, and shall forfeit and pay to the person entitled to such attested Copy, the sum of One hundred Dollars, to be recovered by action of Debt in any Court having Cognizance thereof; and shall be further liable to an action on the Case for all Damages which such Person may sustain for want of such Copy. Provided always, That if the Judge or Judges of the Supreme Court, should be of opinion that there appears to be sufficient matter of substance in the Transcript of the Record and Proceedings on any appeal or Writ of Error, to enable them to proceed thereon, the same shall not be dismissed for want of Form, any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

44 And be it further enacted, That the Clerk of the Supreme Court, upon receiving a Transcript of the Record and Proceedings in any suit, on which an appeal shall be made, or Writ of Error allowed, shall give a receipt to the person delivering the same, and shall immediately endorse thereon the Day on which it shall be delivered; and if he receives it fifteen Days before the sitting of the Term of the then next Supreme Court, he shall enter it upon the Docket of causes for Trial, and deliver to the parties such summonses for their Witnesses, as they may require; but if such Transcript shall be delivered to the Clerk of the Supreme Court within fifteen fifteen Days before the sitting of such Term as aforesaid, then the Clerk shall enter the Cause on the reference Docket of such Court; and if the Clerk of any Supreme Court shall refuse, neglect or omit, to do any of the Duties which he is hereby required to perform, such Clerk shall, upon Trial and conviction, be deemed Guilty of Misbehaviour in office, and shall forfeit and pay to the appellant, or plaintiff in Error two hundred Dollars, to be recovered by action of Debt, in any Court having Cognizance thereof; and be further liable to an action on the Case for all Damages which such appellant, or plaintiff in Error may sustain, by reason of such refusal, neglect or omission.

45 And be it further enacted, That in all actions whatsoever the party in whose favour judgment shall be given, or in case of Nonsuit, Dismission or Discontinuance, the Defendant shall be entitled to full costs, unless where it is or may be otherwise directed by Law.

46 And Whereas, the great distance of the Inhabitants of Washington County from the place of holding the Supreme Courts, will render it inconvenient and expensive to them to prosecute appeals, and yet the small number of people residing in said County, the expence of erecting a Goal sufficient for securing Criminals in all cases and providing other necessary accommodations for the holding of a Supreme Court in said County, would be still more burthensome [redacted]; Therefore in order to remedy the same as far as possible, Be it enacted, that all prisoners charged with crimes exclusively Cognizable in the Supreme Court, shall be brought to the Goal of Natchez for safe Custody, and shall be tried in the Supreme Court by the Jurors attending thereat, and shall be entitled to process to compel the attendance of Witness in their behalf from any part of the Territory. And in all civil causes brought up by appeal from the Court of Common pleas of the said County, it shall be lawful for both parties to take the Depositions of such Witnesses as they may think necessary in Writing, which Depositions shall be taken in the usual manner, on giving due notice to the adverse party, and shall be admitted to be read in evidence at the Trial of such appeal in the Supreme Court. And for the purpose of obtaining such Depositions the party having witness to examine, shall be entitled as of Course to a Dedimus Potestatem to be Issued by the Prothonotary of Washington County, directed to any Justice of the Peace empowering him to cause such witness to appear before him at such time as the party shall appoint, and to examine them on oath touching the matter in question; and such Justice after taking such Testimony in writing, shall cause the witness or witness to sign the same, and shall certify and return the same, under his hand and Seal, to gether with the Dedimus Potestatem to the Supreme Court. PROVIDED, that either party may, if he thinks proper, at his own expence, enforce by proper process the personal attendance of his witnesses from said County. And Provided also, that this right of taking Depositions shall not be extended to any but Witnesses resident in Washington County, or beyond the limits of the Territory.

47 And be it further enacted, that each person who shall attend as a witness, at the Supreme Court, or at any of the Courts of Common Pleas of this Territory, shall be allowed four cents per mile for every mile he shall travel, going to, and returning from the said courts, and the sum of one dollar for every days attendance at the said Courts, to be paid by the party cast, and inserted by the Clerk in the Taxation of Costs. PROVIDED that the party cast shall not be obliged to pay for more than two witnesses to prove any single fact: And the attendance of the witnesses as to the number of Days, shall be ascertained by the oath of the Witness to be made at the Court at which the cause is determined, or within five days after, before the Clerk of the said Court.

48 And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Clerks of the several Courts within this Territory, on the fees not being paid by the party from whom they are due, to make out an Execution directed to the Sheriff of the County where the party resides, and the said Sheriff shall levy the same as in other Cases, and to the said Execution shall be annexed a copy of the bill of Costs of the fees on which such execution shall Issue, written in words at length without any abreviation whatever. And all Executions Issued without such bill of Costs, shall be deemed illegal, and no Sheriff shall serve or Execute the same.

49 And whenever it shall be the opinion of the Court, that a party praying a continuance of a Cause, shall not obtain it without paying Costs, attending the same, they may order costs to be paid by such party before such Continuance be granted, and the party paying such costs, shall not recover them although the Judgment of the Court shall be finally in his favour.

50 And whereas, great injustice is done to Witnesses appearing in behalf of the Territory, by there being no allowance for their attendance at the Supreme Court, and Court of Quarter Sessions, Be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this Law, such Witnesses shall be allowed the same compensation for their daily attendance, as is allowed to Witnesses attending upon Civil Prosecutions, and such fees for attendance together with all costs of the Prosecution shall be paid by the Defendant upon Conviction; and if the Territory shall fail upon the prosecution of any offence of an Inferior nature, the Court may, at their Discretion, order the Costs to be paid by the Prosecutor, in case such Prosecution shall appear to have been frivolous or Malicious: And in case the Defendant shall not be able to pay costs, or the Court shall not think fit to order the Prosecutor to pay the same, that then, and in that case the Clerk of the Court wherein the matter may have been pending, shall grant a Certificate of attendance to the Witnesses for the Territory, in manner as Tickets are granted to Jurors, and such Tickets may be received by the Sheriffs in payment of Public Dues.

51 And be it further enacted, That the Defendant in any cause or suit depending in any Court in this Territory, may plead as many several matters as he shall judge necessary to his Defence, so that he be not admitted to plead and Demur to the whole; and no Instrument of writing which contains sufficient substance shall be lost for want of form.

52 And be it further enacted, That all and every act, and acts, Law, and Laws heretofore made and provided, so far as they come within the purview and meaning of this Law, and are repugnant thereto, shall be and are hereby made void.

53 And be it further enacted, That it shall be the Duty of the Sheriff of the County of Adams, to summon two Constables, taking them in rotation, so that each may do an equal share of service as near as may be, to attend at each Term of the Supreme Courts in this Territory; whose Duty it shall be to attend accordingly during the Term, unless sooner discharged by the Court, under the Penalty of being fined at the discretion of the Court, not exceeding fifty Dollars for each and every neglect.

54 And be it further enacted, That so much of the Law fixing the place where the Supreme Courts for the Territory shall be held, and the number of Sessions; and the time of holding them as directs a Supreme Court of Appeals to be held on the second Monday in January in every year in the County of Adams, shall be and is hereby repealed and made void, and all Causes matters and things, that are or might be Cognizable therein shall be transferred to and be Cognizable in the Supreme Court as herein established, at the ordinary Terms thereof.

An Act to Vender Promissory Notes and Cotton Receipts negotiable, and for other Purposes

Be it enacted, That all notes signed by any Person or Persons, body politic or corporate, or by the servant or agent of any corporation, Banker, Merchant or Trader, who is, or shall be usually intrusted to sign such Promissory Notes for them, whereby such Person or Persons, Body Politic or corporate, or the servant or agent of any corporation, Banker, Merchant or Trader, shall Promise to Pay any Person or Persons, Body Politic or corporate, or the servant or agent of any Corpo=ration, Banker, Merchant, or Trader, or order, or Bearer, the money mentioned in such Note, shall be construed to be, by virtue thereof, due and Payable to such Person or Persons, Body Politic or corporate, or the servant or agent of any Cor=poration, Banker, Merchant or Trader, to whom the same is made Payable, and also, such note Payable to such Person or Persons, Body Politic or corporate, or the servant or agent of any corporation, Banker, Merchant or Trader, or order, or Bearer, may be assignable over in like manner, as Inland Bills of Exchange are by Custom of Merchants in England; and the Person or Persons, Body Politic or corporate, or the servant or agent of any corporation, Banker, Merchant or Trader, to whom such money is or shall be Payable, may maintain an action for the same, as they might upon such Bill of exchange, and the Person or Persons, Body Politic or corporate, or the servant or agent of any Corporation, Banker, Merchant, or Trader, to whom such note so Payable to Order or bearer, is assigned or indorsed, may maintain an action against the Person or Persons, Body Politic or corporate, or the servant or agent of any corporation, Banker, Merchant or Trader, who signed, or shall Sign such Note, or any who shall, or have indorsed the same, as in Case of Inland Bills of Exchange, and Recover damages, and Costs of Suit, and in case of non-suit, or a verdict shall Pass against the Plaintiff, the Defendant shall Recover Costs.

And be it further enacted, that all such Receipts as are or shall be signed by the owner or owners of Cotton Gins, or by the Servant or agent of any owner or owners of Cotton Gins, who is, or shall be usually Intrusted to Sign such Receipts, Commonly Called Cotton Receipts, whereby such owner or owners of Cotton Gins, his, their, or their Servant or agent, shall acknowledge to have received any quantity of Cotton, the quantity of Cotton mentioned in such Receipt, shall be construed to be by virtue thereof, due, and Payable to such Person or Persons of whom the same is acknowledged to have been received. And such Cotton Receipts, whereby any quantity of Cotton is acknowledged to have been received of such Person or Persons, may be assigned over in like manner as Promissory Notes are by the foregoing Section of this Law. And the Person or Persons to whom such Cotton Receipts whereby any quantity of Cotton is acknowledged to have been received as aforesaid, is assigned or indorsed, may maintain action against the owner or owners of any Cotton Gin, his, her or their Servant or agent, who signed or shall sign such Cotton Receipt, or any who shall or have indorsed the same as in Cases of Promissory Notes aforesaid, and recover damages and Costs of Suit.

And be it further enacted, that when any Person or Persons shall, by order in writing, signed by his or their proper hand, direct the Payment of any sum or sums of Money, in the Hands or possession of any other Person or Persons to the Bearer, or any Person or Persons whatsoever, the money therein specified shall, by virtue thereof, be due and Payable to such Person or Persons to whom the same is drawn Payable, and may be put in suit against the Person or Persons who shall draw the same, or against the Person or Persons on whom the same shall be drawn, after acceptance thereof by him or them to whom the same shall be made Payable, and recover Damages

Provided Nevertheless, that no Person or Persons whatsoever, shall prosecute any suit against any Person or Persons who shall give such order for the money therein mentioned, before the same shall have been presented for acceptance, and Notice given of the non-acceptance thereof, to the drawer, or before the same shall have first been Protested for non-acceptance, and Notice given thereof to the drawer before such suit shall be brought, and if any suit shall be brought on any such order, before notice and refusal to pay as aforesaid, the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall be non-suit, and pay Costs

And be it further enacted, that where there are two or more Defendants, who reside in different Counties, it shall and may be lawful for the Plaintiff in any suit in any Court of Record in this Territory, to issue writs directed to the Sheriff or Coroner of each of the Counties where the Defendants are most likely to be found, Noting on each Process that they are Issued in the same suit, and when the same are Returned, shall be docketed in the same manner as if only one had Issued. And in case any defendant or defendants Should not be served with such Process, the same Proceedings shall be had as in cases of other similar Process which has not been executed. And Whereas it is a Rule of Common Law that in Cases of the death of a joint Obligor, the debt Can never Survive against his heirs, Executors, or Administrators, which Rule frequently is injurious and Oppressive to the Surviving Obligor or Obligors: to Remedy which

Be it enacted, That from and after the Passing of this act, in case of death of one or more joint Obligor or Obligors, the joint debt or contract shall and may survive against the heirs, Executors, and administrators of the Deceased Obligor or Obligors, as well as against the survivor or survivors, and when all the Obligors Shall die, the debt or Contract Shall Survive against the Heirs, Executors and administrators of all the said joint Obligors.

And be it further enacted, that every joint Bond, Covenant, Bill or Promissory Note, Shall be deemed and Construed, to have the same effect in Law, as a joint and Several Bond, Covenant, Bill or Promissory note; and it Shall be Lawful to sue out Process, and Proceed to Judgment against any one of the Obligors, Covenantors or drawers of such bond, Covenant, Bill or Promissory Note, in the same manner as if the same were joint and Several, any Law or usage to the Contrary notwithstanding.

And that the Law intituled "a Law to enable an Obligee or Obligees to bring an action on a joint Obligation, against one or more of the Obligors, when any of them are not Residents of this Territory— and also to make Obligations and Promissory Notes assignable, likewise Receipts for Cotton" be and the same is hereby Repealed.

A Law to direct the mode in which Monies may be drawn from the County Treasurers and for other Purposes

Be it enacted that all Claims and Demands that are or hereafter may be by Law made Chargeable on any County within this Territory, shall be by the Claimant produced to the Justices of the Court of Common Pleas of the County against which such claim shall be made, while in Session, who shall thereupon proceed to examine such claim or demand, and on being satisfied by Proof that the same is justly Chargeable on the County, they shall allow the same, or so much thereof, as to them shall appear to be justly due to the Claimant, and shall thereupon cause a Record thereof to be made. And it shall be the duty of the respective Clerks of the said Courts, on the application of the Party, to whom such allowance shall have been made, to make out and deliver to him a Certificate, under his hand and the Seal of the Court, therein specifying the sum due, the name of the Claimant, and the time when the same was allowed; which Certificate the Treasurer of the County, from which the same is Issued, shall and is hereby authorised to receive, and pay the sum Specified Thereto to be due to the Claimant.

Provided, that the Party making such Claim shall give Five days previous notice in writing of his intention, and of the nature of his claim to the Attorney General; and no Court shall allow of any such Claim without being first satisfied that such notice has been given: And Provided also, that if in the Opinion of the Attorney General injustice shall be done to the County, in the allowance made of any such claim, it shall be his duty to pray an appeal to the Supreme Court, which shall be allowed of as of Course, and a transcript of the Proceedings shall thereupon be made out and certified into the next succeeding Term of the Supreme Court, and the Judges of the Supreme Court, shall thereupon Proceed to allow or disallow of such Claim as to them shall appear just, and on allowing thereof, the Clerk of the Supreme Court shall issue a Certificate to the Claimant as above directed, which shall have the like effect as Certificates issued by the Clerk of a Court of Common Pleas — and the Clerk of that Court before whom such Claim shall be allowed, shall receive for all his services therein, the sum of one hundred & fifty cents, to be Paid out of the County Treasury; and on an Appeal the Clerk of the Supreme Court, shall be allowed the like sum, to be Paid in like manner: and the Attorney General for attending to the Examination of each claim in the Court of Common Pleas — shall be allowed — two — Dollars — and on an appeal such further sum as the Court shall deem just

And be it further enacted, that the Clerks of the several Courts, and the Sheriff of the several Counties in this Territory may exhibit their claims to the Proper Court for ex Officio services, in manner herein before directed, and shall thereupon receive an allowance as may ahrear just and reasonable, to be paid as before directed in this act. Provided that no Item of such claim shall be allowed, where fees for the same services are chargeable on any Person, by force of the judgment, sentence or decree, of any Judicial authority, in this Territory.

And whereas the allowance made to the Collectors of Taxes for their Services in Collecting is not an adiquate Compensation for their trouble. Be it enacted, that each Collector of Taxes in this Territory, shall be allowed, and may retain five — Per Centum on the gross amount by him Collected, which shall be allowed to him by the Treasurers in Settling his accounts.

And Be it further enacted, that it shall be the duty of the Collectors to finish their Collections, and Pay in to the hands of the Treasurers, the sums by them Collected, on or before the first day of January [redacted] next, and on failure thereof, it shall be the duty of the Treasurers to institute a suit, or suits on the bonds given by the said Collectors for Performance of their duties, and to Prosecute the same to judgment, for the whole Penal Sum in said Bonds. Provided Nevertheless, that such judgment may be discharged, on the Collectors paying into the hands of the Treasurer, the true amount of the Taxes with which he stands Charged: and Provided also, that the Collector shall be allowed for all insolvencies of Persons from whom Taxes were originally due, at the discretion of the justices of the Court of Common Pleas — of his County subject to an Appeal and Rehearing, before the judges of the Supreme Court by either Party.

And be it Further enacted, that hereafter the Attorney General shall be allowed the following Fees for his services in any Court of Record in this Territory Drawing every Indictment or information in general, for each Defendant two dollars. Drawing every Indictment, information, Process or Pleadings — Per sheet of seventy two words — thirty three cents. Procuring witnesses to be Subpoened and sent before the Grand jury, against each Defendant, one Dollar. Entering every Capet Process or Nolo Prosequi, for each defendant, one Dollar. Every motion in Court One Dollar. Praying out Process on every Indictment, Presentment or information, one Dollar. Every warrant to acknowledge Satisfaction on Record, one Dollar. Fee in Case of demurrer, Special Verdict, or in error, or Pleas Confessed, for each Defendant five Dollars. Fee on Tryal of every Capital Case, where life is concerned, fourteen Dollars. Fee on Tryal of every other matter by Bill, Indictment or information, Eight Dollars.

And where any defendant shall remove any Indictment or information from any Court of Quarter Sessions, into the Supreme Court, the Attorney General shall have for his services in drawing the Indictment or information, and Prosecuting the same, twelve Dollars. For Praying out Scire Facias against Bail, and Proceeding thereon to Judgment, Eight Dollars, to be taxed against the Bail with other costs, in case judgment be entered against them. On calling out, or continuing every Recognisance for good Behaviour, or to Keep the Peace, one Dollar. And, on the calling out or continuance of every such Recognisance, the Person Recognised shall Pay all costs accrued thereon.— And, on all other Proceedings, the Attorney General shall be entitled to the like fees, as are allowed for like services to Practitioners in the Supreme Court, together with the addition of one half the fees allowed to such Practitioners for such services.—

The Fees taxed against the Defendant or Prosecutor, for services Ren=dered by the Attorney General, shall be Paid into the Treasury of the Proper County; And the Attorney General may Present his bill of Fees to the Court of Common Pleas, of the Proper County, twice in every year for their allowance as herein before directed, and receive a certificate as aforesaid, which shall be received and Paid by the Treasurer— Provided the Attorney General shall in every case, on application as aforesaid, Produce to the said Court of Common Pleas, a Bill of fees allowed and Taxed by the Court, in which the Services may have been Rendered. And that so much of the Law heretofore Passed as allows fees to the Attorney General, be, and the same is hereby Repealed.

A Law providing for the speedy Trial of Slaves

Be it enacted, That upon any complaint being made to, or any information received, by any Justice of the Peace, of any offence being committed by any slave or slaves within the County where such Justice is ~~~ empowered to act; such Justice shall cause such Slave to be committed to prison, or otherwise secured, and shall without delay by warrant under his hand and seal, give notice of such committment to two, or more of the nearest Justices of the peace, one of whom to be of the quorum, not being interested in the matter, to associate with him, and by the same warrant shall order a Jury of not less than five respectable Freeholders of his County to be summoned as a Jury, to meet together with the said Justices at any convenient time and place, not less than three, nor more than ten days after the committment of such slave or slaves; and the Justices and Jury so assembled, shall cause the slave or slaves accused or charged, to be brought ~~~ before them, and shall hear the allegations against such slave or slaves, and shall have power to ~~~ examine witnesses on oath, and hear Testimony, and finally to hear and Determine the matter brought before them in the most summary manner, and on conviction, shall, and may give Judgment and thereupon award execution, as to them shall appear Just and Right. Provided, such Judgment shall not extend to the taking away Life or Limb. And Provided also, That if the owner of such slave or slaves shall conceive that Injustice will be done him by such Judgment being executed, he shall have a right to appeal to the Judges of the Supreme Court, any one of whom, with the assistance of a Jury of seven respectable Freeholders, to be summond by his order, shall proceed at any time to re-hear the matter, and affirm, reverse, or alter the former Judgment, as to him shall appear Right, and thereupon to award Execution. And Provided also, That if the owner of such slave, on an appeal, shall give to the Justices first trying such slave, sufficient security for producing such slave before the Judges of the Supreme Court, as herein directed, then such slave shall be delivered to the said owner, otherwise to be confined at the discretion of such Justices. And Provided further, That in all cases where it can conveniently be done the owner of any

any Slave charged with the Commission of an offence, or his Agents, shall be notified thereof, that he may attend the Trial if he will. — And Provided also, that if on an appeal the Judgment shall be affirmed, then the owner of such slave shall be liable to pay all costs attending the Prosecution.
